

At the General Assembly of the Province of Nova Scotia, begun and holden at Halifax, on Thursday, First day of February, 1827, in the Eighth year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Fourth, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith &c. &c. being the First Session of the Thirteenth General Assembly, convened in the said Province.

8 George IV – Chapter 34

An Act in further amendment of an Act to regulate the Jurisdiction of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, within the County of Cape Breton; and to fix and establish the times and places for holding of the said Inferior Court, and General Sessions of the Peace, in and for the said County.

Whereas, many inconveniences are found to result from the court of common pleas and general sessions of the peace, for the southern district of the county of Cape Breton, being held at the times and the seasons now appointed by law; for remedy whereof:

- I. Be it enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, that after one month from the publication of this act, the inferior court of common pleas and general sessions of the peace, for the southern district of the said county of Cape Breton, shall be held on the second Tuesday of March, and on the second Tuesday of November, in each and every year, instead of the times now by law established for holding the same.
- II. And be it further enacted, that this act shall be and continue in force for two years, and from thence to the end of the next session of the general assembly, and no longer.
