GEORGH IV. REGIS.

CHAP. CXIV.

An Act to regulate the Trade of the British Possessions Abroad.

[5th July 1825.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to repeal the several Laws relating to the Customs; in which it is declared that the Laws of the Customs have become intricate by reason of the great Number of Acts relating thereto, which have been passed through a long Series of Years; and it is therefore highly expedient, for the Interests of Commerce and the Ends of Justice, and also for affording Convenience and Facility to all Persons who may be subject to the Operation of those Laws, or who may be authorized to act in the Execution thereof, that all the Statutes now in force relating to the Customs should be repealed, and that the Purposes for which they have from Time to Time been made should be secured by new Enactments, exhibiting more perspicuously and compendiously the various Provisions contained in them: And whereas by the said Act all the Laws of the Customs relating to the Trade of the British Possessions Abroad will be repealed; and it is expedient to make Provisions for the future Regulation of the Trade of those Possessions after such Repeal shall have effect: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, this Act shall come into and be and continue in full Force and Operation, for the regulating of the Trade of the British Possessions Abroad.
