offender or offenders so adjudged and awarded, to remain and be kept in such House of Correction shall be there set at work and kept at hard Labour, for and during such time, as shall be so adjudged and recorded.

In all cases, where any Person is convicted of a crime, for which he is liable to transportation, the court may, in place of transportation, order them to the House of Correction. to be kept at hard labour for such time as such court may appoint.

Provided that the same be not less than three months or more than two years.

Persons convicted of a crime, for which he or she is liable to suffer death, to whom the Royal mercy is extended, the Gov. &c.

To notify such intention to the Judge &c. and require that such Person be sent to the House of Correction

The Judges to obey such warrant and to commit such Person for the time specified in the warrant.

At the expiration of the time so specified, such Person to be discharged.

Persons convicted of grand or Petit Larceny, &c. for which they are liable to be burnt in the hand or to transportation or to suffer death, wit-

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid that from and after the passing of this Act, in all cases where any person shall be lawfully convicted of Grand or Petty Larceny or of any crime for which he or she, shall be liable by the Criminal Statutes or Criminal Laws of this Province or any or either of them, to transportation, it shall be lawful for the Court, in which any such Person shall be so convicted or any Court held for the same District, and with like authority, if such Court, shall think fit, in the place of such punishment by transportation to order and adjudge, that such person shall be sent to the House of Correction, hereby constituted and provided in such District, there to be kept to hard labour, for such term or number of years as such Court shall appoint. Provided that the same shall in no case, be less than three months, or more than two years, and such person so ordered and adjudged, to be kept in such House of Correction, shall be there set at work and kept at hard Labour, for and during such time as shall be so ordered and adjudged.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that from and after the passing of this Act, in all cases, where any person shall be lawfully convicted of any Robbery or other felony for which he or she shall by Law, be liable to suffer death, without the benefit of Clergy, and His Majesty shall be, graciously pleased to extend the Royal Mercy, to any such offender, it shall and may be lawful to and for His Excellency, the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or Person administering the Government of this Province, for the time being, by warrant under his hand and seal at Arms, to notify such intention, of mercy, to the Judge or Judges, Justice or Justices, before whom such person shall be convicted or condemned, and thereby to require and command such Judge or Judges, Justice or Justices, to commit such person, to the House of Correction, hereby constituted and provided, in the District wherein such person shall be so as aforesaid convicted, there to be kept to hard labour, for such time or number of years, as such warrant shall specify, and every such Judge or Judges, Justice or Justices, upon the receipt of such warrant, shall, by warrant, under his or their hands and seals, commit such person to such House of Correction, as aforesaid there to be kept to hard labour, for the time specified in such warrant of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or Person administering the Government of this Province, which person so committed, shall be set at work and kept at hard labour, for and during such time as shall be specified in such last mentioned Warrant, and from and after the expiration of such time, so specified in such last mentioned Warrant, such person, shall be discharged and be entitled, to every of the benefits and advantages of a pardon, upon condition of being kept to hard labour, in such House of Correction, as fully to all intents and purposes, and in like manner as if such conditional pardon had been granted and made, under the Great Seal of this Province, any Law, Statute, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that every person convicted of Grand or Petty Larceny or Robbery or of any crime for which he, she or they shall be liable, by the Criminal Statutes or Criminal Laws of this Province, to be burned in the hand or to transportation, or to suffer death, without benefit of Clergy and who, by virtue of this Act, shall be sent to any House of Correction, hereby constituted and provided, shall be kept in such House of Correction, separate and apart from
