

C A P. VII.

AN ACT for building a new Market House in the City of Montreal, for removing part of the Stalls on the old Market place, and regulating the same, and to authorise the borrowing a certain sum of money for those purposes.

(16th April, 1807.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS the square in the City of Montreal now in use as the public Market Place, is too small in extent and otherwise inconvenient for the numerous and increasing population of the said City, and a new square or space of ground has been ceded to the Magistrates of the said City of much greater extent and conveniency, on the condition and for the special purpose that the said new square shall be constituted and declared a Public Market Place, in and for the said City of Montreal; and the Magistrates aforesaid having declared that the said new square shall become a Public Market Place, in conformity to an Act of the thirty sixth year of His Present Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act for making, repairing and altering the Highways and Bridges within this Province, and for other purposes;" And whereas the said Magistrates for the conveniency of the inhabitants of the said City, and of all other persons resorting thereto, are desirous of erecting in the said new square, a suitable and convenient Market-house, with Stalls for selling and exposing to sale, all kinds of butcher's meat, for which purpose, the said Magistrates have by Petition to the Legislature of the Province prayed for leave to borrow a certain sum of money, to be laid out in the building of such Market-house, with Stalls; and further to authorise them to mortgage the rents or profits that may arise from letting out the said Stalls, as security for the principal and interest of the money so borrowed. May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of An Act passed in the Parliament of Great-Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of An Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America'" and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province" and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the Magistrates for the City and District of Montreal, or any five of them being resident within the said City of Montreal, or the Suburbs thereof, are hereby constituted and appointed Trustees, for the purpose of carrying this Act into effect.

Magistrates of the City and District of Montreal or any five of them resident in Montreal or Suburbs thereof, constituted Trustees.

Duty of the Trustees after their ensuing the passing of this Act, then to enter upon the discharge of their duty: and it shall and may be lawful for the said Trustees, to cause to be prepared and laid before them, a plan of a new Market-house with Stalls, to be erected within the said City of Montreal, upon the new square or space ceded as above said to the Magistrates of the said City, and the same being approved of by the said Trustees, they are hereby authorised to treat and contract for the building of the said Market-House and Stalls, with such person or persons as may be willing to undertake for the same. Provided always, that no contract shall be entered into by the said Trustees, until they shall, by advertisement, for three weeks in the Quebec Gazette, and such other News paper as they shall judge expedient, have given notice, that they are ready to receive proposals in writing for the work to be performed.

Proviso.

Trustees empowered to borrow £2500 for erecting a Market-house in the City of Montreal.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that for defraying the expences of erecting a new Market-House with Stalls as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the said Trustees to borrow on legal interest, a sum of money, not exceeding two thousand five hundred Pounds currency, to be laid out in part or in whole, in the erecting a suitable and convenient Market-House with Stalls in the City of Montreal, on the new square aforesaid, as to them may appear necessary. Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the said Trustees to lay out so much of the said new Market-House, as to them shall appear necessary, for the receiving and safe keeping of one of the Fire Engines belonging to the City of Montreal, with buckets and other implements thereunto appertaining.

Proviso.

Principal and interest of money borrowed, how secured,

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that for surety of principal and interest of the money so to be borrowed, it shall and may be lawful for the said Trustees, and they are hereby authorised, to pass a deed of mortgage to the lenders of the money aforesaid, binding and hypothecating the rents or profits to be derived from the said new Market-House and Stalls, in manner as is herein after provided; but on no other funds rents or profits whatever shall the lenders of the money, their Heirs, Executors, Curators or Assigns, have any lien or claim whatsoever, for or by reason of the money they shall have so lent; and the holders of such Mortgages respectively, may transfer the same to such person or persons as they may think proper, and the transferees shall have the same right to payment of interest and capital, as if he or they had been the original lender or lenders of the money for which the mortgage or mortgages were granted. Provided, that such transferees shall cause to be notified to the Treasurer of the Trustees by leaving a copy of such transfer, with him, that he or they have become proprietor or proprietors of such mortgage or mortgages, and the said Treasurer shall enregister the same in a book to be by him kept for the purpose.

Proviso.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall be the duty of

in their hands to pay of principal and interest of the sum borrowed

the said Trustees so soon as there shall be funds in their hands for that purpose, and that the interest of the capital shall have been paid, to pay off the principal, which, in virtue of and for the purpose of this Act, they shall have borrowed, and the lenders of the money aforesaid, shall be bound to receive back the same in such payments and sums of money at a time, as the said funds may be adequate to and the Trustees see fit. Provided always, that not less of the capital than ten per cent shall be paid off in one payment, and to all of the lenders, their heirs, executors, curators and assigns, in equal proportions, but it shall not prevent the said Trustees from paying a greater proportion to any one or more of the lenders, provided, three fourths in value of the other lenders, their heirs, executors, curators or assigns, shall thereunto agree.

Proviso.

Trustees empowered to let out the Stalls.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that in order to provide for the repayment of capital so to be borrowed, and of interest thereupon arising, it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees aforesaid, so soon as the said new Market-House, with the Stalls or such part thereof as the Trustees shall think sufficient for the purpose of selling butcher's meat, shall be completed, to let out by the year or otherwise, the said Stalls to such persons as may be willing to hire the same, at such rent, as by the Trustees and persons hiring the same shall be agreed upon; or the same may be let out by Public Auction, and the rent so agreed upon, either by private bargain or public auction, shall be paid half yearly or otherwise as to the said Trustees shall seem expedient, into the hands of the Treasurer to be named and appointed by the Trustees aforesaid, and they are hereby empowered to remove the said Treasurer, and to appoint another, and from time to time, to make such appointment as thereafter may become necessary by removal or by death of any Treasurer so appointed.

Treasurer to be appointed.

Trustees may let out the Stalls for other purposes
than butcher's meat.

VII. And whereas it may for some time to come be unnecessary to fill up the whole of the said new Market house with Stalls for the sale of butcher's meat, and part of the Stalls which are to be erected may at times remain unlet for that purpose. Be it therefore further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the space unoccupied by Stalls, as also any Stalls unlet for the sale of butcher's meat, may, by the Trustees aforesaid, be let out to hire for the purpose of selling and exposing to sale Grain or any other Provisions, for such rent, as they may deem just and reasonable, and can agree for; and in like manner, the said Trustees may let to hire the space under cover along the sides of the said new Market-house, for the sale of all sorts of fruit and vegetables.

Provided that such Fees shall be notified before letting said Stalls or places, under cover, to the person or persons desirous of hiring the same.

Proviso.

Treasurer to give security.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the Treasurer so to be appointed, shall, before entering upon his office, give good and sufficient security to the satisfaction of the Trustees, that he shall faithfully account for all monies he may receive by virtue of this Act, and for the due execution of the trusts reposed in him, by virtue of the same: and the said Treasurer shall be allowed for his trouble, in receiving and paying monies according to the purposes of this Act, a sum not exceeding twelve pence in the pound on the monies so paid; and it shall be lawful for the said Trustees to alter the allowances to be made to the Treasurer, by increasing or diminishing the same as they see fit and reasonable, so as that the rate aforesaid, be not in any case exceeded.
