Provided always, that if such petition as above-mentioned, be not made and presented to the Grand Voyer, or his Deputy as aforesaid, within three months, and a copy thereof served upon the said Jean Thomas Taschereau, George Pyke, Pierre Edouard Desbarats, and François Roy, within three months after such notification as aforesaid, it shall forthwith, after the expiration of the said three months, be lawful for the said Jean Thomas Taschereau, George Pyke, Pierre Edouard Desbarats, and François Roy, to avail themselves of this Act, and to proceed immediately thereafter to the erection and construction of the said bridge and toll house.

Proviso.

Public Act.

XV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that this Act shall be deemed a public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices of the Peace, and all other persons whomsoever, without being specially pleaded.

C A P. XXI.

An ACT to authorize William Hall, Esquire, to build a Toll-Bridge over the River Etchemin, at the lower Ford in the Parish of Saint Henry, in the County of Dorchester.

(1st April, 1818.)

Preamble.

WHEREAS the erection of a Toll-Bridge over the River Etchemins, in the parish of Saint Henry, in the County of Dorchester, at the lower Ford, would materially contribute to the convenience of the inhabitants of the adjacent parishes: And whereas William Hall, hath, by his Petition in this behalf, prayed for leave to build a Toll-bridge over the said River, at the aforesaid place—Therefore fore may it please Your Majesty, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act for making more effectual provision for the government of the Province of Quebec in North America," and to make further provision for the government of the said Province;—And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that it shall be lawful for the said William Hall, and he is hereby authorized and empowered at his own costs and charges to erect and build a good and substantial Bridge over the said River Etchemins, at the lower ford aforesaid, or nearthereto, and to erect and build one Toll-House and Turnpike, with other dependencies, on or near the said Bridge; and also to do, perform, and execute all other matters and things requisite and necessary, useful or convenient for erecting and building, maintaining and supporting the said intended bridge, toll house, turnpike, and other dependencies, according to the tenor and true meaning of this Act.

Wm. Hall authorized to build a toll bridge over the river Etchemins.

William Hall, authorized to use the land on either side of the river Etchemins, and to work up materials necessary for constructing the bridge, making a reasonable satisfaction to the respective owners and occupiers of the lands for the damages done to the same.

Proviso.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that for the purpose of erecting, building, maintaining or supporting the said bridge, the said William Hall, his heirs, executors, curators, and assigns, shall, from time to time, have full power and authority to take, and use the land on either side of the said River Etchemins and there to work up, or cause to be worked up the materials and other things necessary for erecting, constructing, or repairing the said bridge accordingly; the said William Hall, his heirs, executors, curators, and assigns, and the persons by him or them employed, doing as little damage as may be, and making reasonable and just satisfaction to the respective owners and occupiers of all such lands and grounds as shall be altered, damaged, or made use of for the value of such land as well as for that of the alteration or of the damages which they may cause to the proprietors by means of or for the purpose of erecting the said bridge, and the said house as above designated; and in case of difference of opinion and dispute about the quantum of such satisfaction, the same shall be settled by His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, for the District of Quebec, after a previous visitation, examination, and estimation of the premises, shall have been made by experts, to be named by the parties respectively; and in default of such nomination by them, or either of them, then by the said Court, in manner and form prescribed by law, and the said Court is hereby authorized and empowered to hear, settle, and finally determine the amount of such compensation in consequence. Provided always, that the said William Hall, his heirs, executors, curators and assigns, shall not commence the erection of the said bridge and other works, by which any person may be deprived of his land or part thereof, or may suffer damage, before the price or value of the said land and damages estimated and settled in the manner before prescribed, shall have been been paid to such person, or after such price or value shall have been offered to him, or that on his refusal the said William Hall shall have deposited it at the office of the Prothonotary of the Court of King's Bench for the District of Quebec.

Bridge, &c. vested in the said Wm. Hall, his heirs and assigns, at the expiration of 50 years, His Majesty may assume the possession of the said bridge, &c. paying to William Hall the full value thereof.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the said bridge and the said toll-house, turnpike and dependencies to be erected thereon, or near thereto, and also the ascents or approaches to the said bridge, and all materials which shall be from time to time found or provided, for erecting, building, or maintaining and repairing the same, shall be vested in the said William Hall, his heirs and assigns for ever. Provided, that after the expiration of fifty years from the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, his heirs and successors, to assume the possession and property of the said bridge, toll-house, turnpike and dependencies, and the ascents and the approaches thereto, upon paying to the said William Hall, his heirs, executors, curators, or assigns, the full and entire value which the same shall at the time of such assumption, bear and be worth.

Certain tolls granted to Wm. Hall, for pontage.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that when and so soon as the said bridge shall be erected and built, and made fit and proper for the passage of travellers, cattle and carriages, and that the same shall have been certified by any two or more Justices of the Peace, for the District of Quebec, after examination thereof, by three experts, to be appointed and sworn by the said Justices; and shall have been advertized in the Quebec Gazette, it shall be lawful for the said William Hall, his heirs, executors, curators and assigns, from time to time, and at all times to ask, demand, receive, recover and take toll, and for his and their own proper use benefit, and behoof, for pontage, as or in the name of a toll or duty, before any passage over the said bridge shall be permitted, the several sums following, that is to say: for every coach, or other four wheel carriage, loaded or unloaded, with the driver and four persons, or less, drawn by two or more horses, or other beasts of draught, one shilling and three-pence currency; for every waggon, or other four wheel carriage, loaded or unloaded, one shilling currency; for every chaise, calash, chair with two wheels, or cariole, or other such carriage, loaded or unloaded, with the driver and two persons or less, drawn by two horses or other beasts of draught, four-pence currency; and drawn by one horse or other beast of draught three-pence currency; for every cart, sled, or other such carriage, loaded or unloaded, drawn by two horses, oxen, or other beasts of draught, with the drivers, four-pence currency; and if drawn by one horse or other beast of draught, three-pence currency; for every person on foot one half-penny currency; for every horse, mare, mule, or other beast of draught, laden or unladen, one half-penny currency; for every person on horseback, two-pence currency; for every bull, ox, cow, and all other horned and neat cattle, each one penny, currency; for every hog, goat, sheep, calf or lamb, one half-penny currency.

An ACT to authorize William Hall, Esquire, to build a Toll-Bridge over the Great Branch of the River St. François, near the line of separation between the Townships of Dudswell and Westbury, in the County of Buckinghamshire.

(1st April, 1818.)

Preamble.

Wm. Hall authorized to build a toll bridge over the great branch of the River St. François.

WHEREAS the erection of a Bridge over the Great Branch of the River Saint François, near the line of separation between the Townships of Dudswell and Westbury, in the County of Buckinghamshire, would materially augment the convenience and facility of the intercourse of the Inhabitants of the adjacent parishes and concessions; and of the public at large: And whereas William Hall, of the city of Quebec, by his petition in that behalf, hath prayed leave to erect a Toll-bridge over the great branch of the said river Saint François, may it therefore please Your Majesty, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted, by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act for making more effectual provision for the government of the Province of Quebec in North America," and to make further provision for the government of the said Province;" And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that it shall be lawful to and for the said William Hall, and he is hereby authorized and empowered at his own costs and charges to erect and build a good and substantial Bridge over the great branch of the said River Saint François, and to erect or build one Toll-House and Turnpike, with other dependencies, on or near the said Bridge; and also to do, perform, and execute all other matters and things requisite and necessary, useful and convenient for erecting and building, maintaining and supporting the said intended bridge, toll house, turnpike, and other dependencies, according to the tenor and true meaning of this Act; and further, that for the purpose of erecting, building, maintaining and supporting the said bridge, the said William Hall, his heirs, executors, curators, and assigns, shall have full power and authority to take, from time to time, and use the land on either side of the great branch of the said river
