An Act to continue for a limited time, an Act passed in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to provide for the maintenance of good Order on Sundays and Holidays."

(24th April, 1819.)

Preamble.

Act 57. Geo. III. cap. 3, continued.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to provide for the maintenance of good Order on Sundays and Holidays," which said Act will expire on the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen; And whereas it is expedient further to continue for a limited time, the aforesaid Act; Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America," and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the aforesaid act passed in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to provide for the maintenance of good order on Sundays and Holidays," and all and every the matters and things therein-mentioned and contained, shall continue and be in force until the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, and no longer.
