

The Provincial Statutes of Lower-Canada, Being the first session of the Second Provincial Parliament of Lower-Canada. Quebec: William Vondenvelden, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1797.

37 George III – Chapter 5

An Act to continue an Act passed in the thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to provide Returning Officers for Knights, Citizens and Burgesses, to serve in Assembly." [2d. May, 1797.]

Whereas an Act passed in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act to provide Returning Officers for Knights, Citizens and Burgesses, to serve in Assembly," will expire on the twenty-sixth day of the month of December in the present Year; And whereas it is necessary to continue the said Act; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act of the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further Provision for the Government of the said Province;" And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the said Act of the thirty-third year of His Majesty's Reign, and every part thereof, and every clause, matter and thing therein contained, are by the present Act continued until the last day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and no longer.
