

The Provincial Statutes of Lower-Canada, Being the second session of the Second Provincial Parliament of Lower-Canada. Quebec: William Vondenvelden, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1798.

38 George III – Chapter 1

An Act further to continue an Act passed in the Thirty-sixth year of His Majesty's Reign intituled "An Act for making a temporary Provision for the Regulation of Trade between this Province and the United States of America by Land or by Inland Navigation." (11th May, 1798.)

Whereas an Act was made by the Legislature of this Province in the Thirty-sixth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for making temporary Provision for the regulation of Trade between this Province and the United States of America by Land or by Inland Navigation," which Act was to have continuance only to the first day of January, One thousand seven hundred and ninety seven and to the end of the then next session of the Legislature; and whereas the said Act was continued by an Act passed in the last Session of the Legislature to the end of the present Session thereof, and it is expedient and necessary further to continue the same, be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and authority of an Act of the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America and to make further Provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and it is hereby enacted by authority of the same, that the said Act and all matters and things therein contained, shall continue and be in force, until the first day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, and from thence to the end of the then next Session of the Legislature and no longer. Provided always, that all and every order or orders issued and published under the authority of the said Act, shall not continue and be in force longer than the said first day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine, and from thence to the end of the then next Session of the Provincial Parliament.
