

The Provincial Statutes of Lower-Canada, Being the Second session of the Third Provincial Parliament of Lower-Canada. Quebec: P. E. Desbarats, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1802.

42 George III – Chapter 1

An Act to continue, for a limited time, an Act passed in the fortieth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to give further powers to the Executive Government to prevent the introduction or spreading of infectious or contagious Diseases in this Province." (5th April, 1802.)

Whereas an Act was passed by the Legislature of this Province, in the fortieth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to give further powers to the Executive Government to prevent the introduction or spreading of infectious or contagious Diseases in this Province," Which Act will expire at the end of the present Session of the Legislature; And Whereas it is expedient and necessary that the said Act should be continued, Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further Provision for the Government of the said Province'" And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the said Act, intituled, "An Act to give further Powers to the Executive Government to prevent the introduction or spreading of infectious or contagious Diseases in this Province," and all matters and things therein contained, shall continue and be in force, until the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and four, and from thence to the end of the then next Session of the Provincial Parliament and no longer.
