XI. Provided always and be it further enacted, that no non commissioned officer of Militia, or Militia man, who shall be lawfully appointed to serve the office of Constable, shall be obliged to perform any Militia duty, during the year for which he is so appointed a Constable, unless the County in which he resides is actually invaded.

XII. And as good order depends much on the ready obedience of officers in the execution of their duty, and on the example they show to the Militia men; Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that in all cases where a Militia officer shall refuse or neglect to attend any court martial to which he is called, and to take the oath herein after mentioned, or shall absent himself from musters, exercise or reviews, established by this Act, refuse to attend, (unless prevented by sickness or unavoidable necessity,) neglect his duty, or be guilty of partiality or disobedience to the orders of his superior officers, quarrel with or insult them by injurious or abusive words; the said officer shall be liable to be brought before a Court martial, which shall be assembled for that purpose, and composed of one Field Officer at least, and of a number of other Militia officers of the district or battalion, who shall not be less than eight; to which officers, or any of them, it may always be legally objected, before the hearing of the cause that he or they are interested in the complaint, and which Court martial composed as above, and in which a Field Officer shall preside, shall proceed to hear and determine the complaint brought before it concerning the said officer, and shall, if he is found guilty, inflict upon him such penalty, proportioned to the offence, as the said Court shall judge proper, which may be either by censure, or suspension, or depriving him of his commission and degrading him from his rank.

XIII. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that in all cases where a Court martial shall be held as above established, the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government, upon complaint and application to him, made through the Colonel or field officer of Militia commanding the respective district or battalion, or in case he is inculpated, through the next in command, shall issue an order under his hand and seal, appointing the President of the court, and directed to such Colonel or Field Officer, or the next in command, as the case may require, therein nominating, or authorizing him to nominate, the members of the Court, and to fix a time and place for convening the same; provided always, that the judgment of every such Court martial shall have passed with the concurrence of two thirds of the Officers present, and shall not be put in execution until the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government has approved thereof.

XIV. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that in all trials by Court martial, to be held in virtue of this Act, on officers not embodied on actual service, the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government, shall nominate and appoint a fit person to act as Judge Advocate, and every member assisting at such trial, before any proceedings be had thereupon, shall take the following Oath, upon the Holy Evangelists, before the said Judge Advocate, (who is hereby authorized to administer the same,) that is to say: - "A. B.do swear that I will duly administer justice, to the best of my understanding, in the matter now before me, according to the evidence, and the Militia Laws now in force in this Province, without partiality, favor, or affection; and I further swear, that I will not divulge the sentence of the Court, until it shall be approved by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government; neither will I upon any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of the Court martial, unless required to give evidence thereof as a witness, by a Court of Justice, in a due course of Law. So help me God.” And as soon as the said Oath has been administered to the respective members, the President of the Court is hereby authorized and required to administer to the person acting as Judge Advocate, an Oath in the following words:—“ I, A. B, do swear, that I will not upon any account, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of the Court martial, unless required to give evidence thereof, as a witness by a Court of Justice, in a due course of law. So help me God.”

XV. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that the person appointed to sit as President of every Court martial, assembled in the manner herein before directed, shall have power and authority to issue summons, for compelling the attendance of witnesses, at any trial to be held before the said Court, and such summons being duly served by a Sergeant of Militia, at least two days before the day fixed for the trial, if the place of residence of the witness is not more than three leagues distance, and one day more for every five leagues, that such place of residence shall be further distant, every witness making default in appearing conformable thereto, shall for such offence, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding forty shillings current money of this Province, unless prevented by sickness or other unavoidable necessity; and for every repetition of the like offence, shall be subject to suffer imprisonment for a time not exceeding thirty days; and before hearing the testimony of any witness the person acting as Judge Advocate, is hereby authorized and required to administer to him, the following oath:- “The evidence you shall give to this Court martial on the trial of A. B. shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. So help you God.”

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the said authority, that each witness summoned in the manner herein before directed, shall have right to demand and receive from the party, who shall have caused him to be summoned, a reasonable allowance for his travelling expences, not exceeding one shilling per league, in going from and returning to his place of residence, besides the expences of Ferries, if any there are; and as an indemnity for loss of time, a further sum not exceeding ten shillings, nor less than two shilling and sixpence per day, which costs and indemnity shall be taxed by the Court, and paid by the person who shall have caused the witness to be summoned, and the party against whom judgment is given by the said Court, may be prosecuted to reimburse the same by Action of Debt, in any of the Civil Courts of this Province.

XVII. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that all officers of Militia are hereby authorized and required to apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, by such number of Militia men, as they shall consider necessary, all deserters, whether soldiers, Militia men in actual service, or seamen, all disorderly persons, vagabonds, foreign enemies, prisoners of war escaping, and every other person or persons sowing sedition or dissention, or disturbing the public tranquillity: And whoever shall harbour or lodge any person of the above description, knowing him to be such, without giving immediate notice to the Captain, or some other officer of their Company, shall incur a fine not exceeding five pounds, and in case of a repetition thereof, a fine not exceeding ten pounds; and all deserters who shall have been apprehended, as well as disorderly persons, vagabonds, and others of the above description, shall be brought from Captain to Captain, under the charge of a Sergeant and a sufficient number of Militia men, that each Captain, or the Commanding Officer shall command for that purpose, before the nearest Justice of the Peace, that every soldier, Militia man in actual service, or sailor, so apprehended, shall and may, by order of such Justice, be conducted from Parish to Parish, by a sufficient party of Militia men, under the command of a Sergeant, (which party every Captain or other officer commanding a Company, is authorized and required to order and command for such service,) to the Corps, Ship, or Vessel from which he deserted, as the case may be, if such Corps, Ship or vessel, is known to such Justice, otherwise, to the Goal of the District in which he shall be apprehended; and every disorderly person, vagabond, foreign enemy, prisoner of war escaping, and every other person sowing sedition or disturbing the public tranquillity, shall be conducted, in like manner, to the Goal of the District in which he shall be apprehended, to be dealt with according to Law, unless that the crime with which such person is charged, is bailable by Law, and that good and sufficient bail is rendered to the Justice of the Peace before whom he shall be brought. And as it hath been experienced, that inconveniences have arisen, respecting the Ferries across rivers; all persons holding Ferries or Bridges that may be on the public high roads, shall be held to cross over all such prisoners, with the persons destined to conduct them, free of all charges of ferriage or toll whatsoever; as also to repass the said conductors immediately upon their return, under a penalty not exceeding twenty shillings, and in case of a repetition thereof, a penalty not exceeding forty shillings; and when it shall be necessary to cross the River St. Lawrence, or other great rivers, where regular passage Boats are not established, the Captain or senior Officer of the Militia of the Parish shall provide for the same, by ordering as aforesaid.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, that the person or persons informing against any offender, as aforesaid, shall be entitled to receive one half of the fine or fines hereby imposed.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the Goaler or keeper of every Prison or House of Correction in this Province, is hereby authorized and required to receive into his custody, all and every prisoner or prisoners committed in pursuance of this Act, and him or them in Prison or House of Correction, to detain and keep, pursuant to the Warrant of Commitment to him directed.

XX. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that when any fine imposed on any Militia man, for refusing to obey the lawful orders of his superior Officer or Officers, when employed on Militia duty or for quarrelling with or insulting by abusive words or otherwise, any Officer or non commissioned Officer, being also in the execution of his duty, shall exceed forty shillings lawful money of this Province, and the same is not paid within eight days after judgment is pronounced against such Militia man, it shall and may be lawful for any two of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, by Warrant under their hands and seals, to commit such offender to the common Goal or House of Correction of the District, for any time not exceeding ten days, and for every such subsequent offence, every such offender may be fined in a sum not exceeding four pounds, and if not paid within the time above specified, then to be committed in the manner herein before directed, for any time not exceeding twenty days, to the common Goal or House of Correction for the District, respectively, where the offence shall be committed.

XXI. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that when any Officer of Militia shall change his place of residence, it shall be the duty of such Officer to give notice thereof, within one month, to the Field Officer, or other Officer commanding the District, division or battalion, within which he shall have fixed his new place of residence, that he may be entered on the Rolls of the District, division or battalion, according to his rank, and such Officer shall not be subject to serve in any quality inferior to his former rank.

XXII. And whereas in cases of war, invasion or imminent danger thereof, insurrection, or other pressing exigences, it may be requisite for the safety of the Province, that the whole Militia thereof, or the whole or part of the Militia of certain Districts or battalions, be called out and embodied, without loss of time: Be it therefore enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that in all or any of the foregoing cases, it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or the person administering the Government, to call out the whole or such part as to him may appear expedient, of the Militia of any District, division, battalion, or company in this Province, in such manner as he shall order and direct, and the Militia so called out, to form into Companies and Battalions, in such manner as he in his discretion shall think proper, and under the command of such Officers as he shall appoint, and them to march to such place or places, and in such manner as to him or to the Officers whom he shall for that purpose appoint, may appear best adapted to the circumstances of the danger. Provided always, that no part of the Militia called forth in the manner aforesaid, shall be obliged to continue in actual service for more than six Months at one time; and no Militia man shall be called out who shall be above the age of fifty years, unless that the whole of the Militia of any District or battalion to which he may belong, shall be called out and embodied. Provided also, that it shall not be lawful to order the Militia nor any part thereof, to march out of the Province, except for the assistance of the Province of Upper Canada, when the same shall be actually invaded, and except in pursuit of an enemy who may have invaded this Province, and except also, for the destruction of any Vessel or Vessels built or building, or any Depot or Magazine, formed or forming, or for the attack of an enemy who may be embodying or marching for the purpose of invading this Province, or for the attack of any Fortification which may be erecting to cover an invasion thereof.

XXIII. And whereas it is just and reasonable, that when time and circumstances will permit, the number of Militia necessary should be furnished by drawing the same by Lot, and that when practicable, every part of the Province should contribute to the general defence thereof, in cases of War, Invasion or imminent danger, Insurrection or other pressing exigences, as also that when the whole or a great part of any Division or Battalion, shall have been called out and embodied, in the manner herein before mentioned, a part thereof should be discharged and replaced by Detachments from more distant parts, as soon as can be conveniently done. Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, that in all or any of the foregoing cases, it shall and may be lawful, for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or person administering the Government, if to him it shall appear expedient, to call out Detachments from the Militia of all the different Districts, divisions, battalions and companies in this Province, by issuing his orders to the Commanding Officer of every District, division or battalion, specifying the Quota to be furnished by such District, division or battalion, in proportion to the total number of Militia in the Province, by the last Returns, and the time or times, or place or places of general Rendez-vous for the Detachments drawn from such District, division or battalion; on receipt of which order, every such Commanding Officer shall issue his Orders without loss of time, to the Captains or other Officers commanding Companies, specifying the Quota to be furnished by each company, in a proportion as near as possible to the strength of the companies by the last Returns, and fixing the time and place at which such companies are to attend, for the purpose of drawing by Lot, for the number of men to be furnished by each of them, respectively; and also the time at which they are to march off to the Rendez-vous for the District, with the time and place of such rendez-vous, and on receipt of every such order, every Captain or other Officer commanding a company, shall, without loss of time order every man in his company of the description mentioned in the order, by notice signified to him, personally, or to some grown person, at his usual place of residence, by a Sergeant of the company, to appear at the time and place fixed, and at such time and place, the Captain, or other officer commending the company, in the presence of one Justice of the Peace, or in his absence, of two of the principal Inhabitants of the place, of upwards of sixty years of age, shall proceed to cause every man of the description mentioned, in the order then present, betwixt the age of eighteen and fifty years, inclusive, to draw publicly by Lot, for the tour of duty then ordered, and shall appoint some discreet person also to draw publicly for every man in his company, of the foregoing description, who shall not then appear, or who shall then decline drawing, which drawing shall be as valid and effectual, as if such absentee or absentees, or person or persons so declining, had appeared and drawn for himself or themselves, and the Captain or other officer commanding a company, shall immediately after such drawing, notify the time and places agreeable to the orders he may receive from the Commanding Officer of the District or battalion, at which the Militia men on whom the Lot shall have fallen, are to assemble and march off to the Rendez-vous of the District or battalion, and if any of the Lots shall have fallen on any Absentee or Absentees, he shall give him or them notice thereof, without loss of time, by an order verbally notified to him or them, personally, or to a grown person, at his or their usual place of residence, by a Sergeant of the company, to appear at the time and place fixed as aforesaid; and in case that there shall not be then fixed by the Commanding Officer of the District or battalion, times and places for the detachments to assemble and march off to the Rendez-vous of the District; the Captain or other officer presiding at every such drawing by Lot, shall give notice to the Militia men on whom the Lots shall have fallen, to hold themselves in readiness to assemble and march off at such time and place, as may be afterwards ordered; and every detachment drawn by Lot, as aforesaid shall be conducted to the Rendez-vous of the District by an Officer or Sergeant, to be appointed for that service by the Officer commanding the company, from whence they shall be conducted under the command of such officer or officers, as shall be ordered for that service, by the Field Officer commanding the District or battalion, at such time or times, and to such place or places, as shall be ordered by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government; and it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government, to form the said Detachments into Companies or Battalions, under the command of such officers as he shall appoint, in such manner as he shall think proper, and them to march to such place or places, under the restrictions herein before mentioned, as to him shall appear necessary and expedient for the purposes herein before recited.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, that all Militia men drawn by Lot, as aforesaid, shall be discharged, at the end of one year from the time of drawing, or sooner, if circumstances will allow thereof; and that they shall not be liable to draw again by Lot until, by rotation, it shall come to their turn, nor shall they be liable to be ordered out, unless that the exigencies of the service shall require the whole of the Militia of the District, division or battalion, where there shall reside to be called out; in which case they shall be discharged as soon as the nature of such exigency will permit, or that they can be conveniently replaced by detachments drawn from distant parts of the Province. Provided also, that there shall always be at least six days, betwixt the time to be appointed for drawing by Lot, and the time to be fixed for marching off the detachments from companies to the Rendez-vous for the District. And provided also, that in all cases, it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government, to order the detachments to be furnished from each company of Militia, either by command, or by drawing by Lot, as he shall think most expedient.

XXV. Provided further and be it enacted by the said authority, that in any of the cases herein before mentioned, for commanding or drawing by Lot, any part of the Militia, to the end of being incorporated for the purpose of actual service, it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government, when he shall judge it necessary, having regard to the number of men he may wish so to command or draw by Lot, and according to the circumstances of such command or drawing by Lot, to order that the batchelors of the age and description required by this Act, be first commanded or drawn by Lot, in preference to the married men: and if the batchelors shall be first commanded or drawn by Lot, the number to be furnished by each District and battalion of Militia, shall be apportioned according to the total number of Militia men, whether married or batchelors, in each District and battalion of Militia, respectively, by the last Returns; and each Colonel or Field Officer commanding a District or battalion, shall then apportion the number of men he is required to furnish from his District or battalion, amongst the companies of which it is composed, according to the number of batchelors in each company, after which apportionment, the number to be thus furnished by each company, shall be commanded or drawn by Lot, as the order may be, from amongst the batchelors of each company, respectively; but if there shall not be a sufficient number of batchelors in any company, to complete the number so apportioned, to be furnished by such company, then the deficiency shall be supplied from amongst the married men, of such company, to deficient; and after the expiration of the time of service of such Militia men, ordered out as aforesaid, they shall not be subject to be again commanded or drawn by Lot, until that, by rotation of all the other Militia men of the companies to which they respectively belong, it shall come again to their turn, unless that the exigency of the service should require the whole Militia of the District or battalion to which they respectively belong, to be ordered out; in which case they shall be discharged as soon as the nature of such exigency will permit.

XXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, that when it shall happen that there are two, or any greater number of sons liable to draw by Lot, or commanded in the manner herein before directed, residing in the House or Family of their Father or Mother, and who shall have so resided for one year preceding; then and in such case, not more than one half of such number, shall be bound to serve; and if any person aged sixty years or upwards, or any Widow occupying and cultivating his or her own land, and having an only Son or Grandson, who shall have lived with such aged person or Widow, for the space of twelve Months, before the drawing or commanding as aforesaid, such only Son or Grandson shall be exempted from drawing or being commanded, so long as he resides in the House or Family of such aged person or Widow.

XXVII. And whereas circumstances may render it indispensable to the safety of the Province, that the Field Officers and Captains of Militia nearest to any place in immediate danger, should have authority to order out the Militia, or part thereof under their command, without waiting for the orders of their senior officer or of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government: Be it therefore further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that in cases of actual invasion, or insurrection, when there may not be time to communicate with their senior officer, or for the senior officer to communicate with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government, it shall and may be lawful for the Field Officer or Officers, Captain or Captains of Militia, nearest to the place or places in danger, to order out, and they are hereby required, immediately, to order out the whole, or such part of the Militia, respectively under their command, as they shall judge necessary to repel, suppress or check such invasion or insurrection; intelligence of which they shall immediately transmit, by express, to the Colonel or Field Officer, commanding their respective District or battalion; and such Colonel or Field Officer, on receipt of such intelligence, shall give his provisional orders therein to the Militia under his command, and forthwith forward on also by express, the intelligence by him received, to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government, who shall thereupon give such orders respecting the discharging, relieving or reinforcing the part of the Militia, so provisionally embodied, as the nature of the exigency may require.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that whenever the Militia, or any detachments thereof, shall be called out in the manner herein before mentioned, every Militia man, who shall have been commanded or drawn by Lot, who, (not labouring under any infirmity incapacitating him,) shall abscond or neglect to appear at the time or place of XXXII. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that all muskets, delivered for the service of the Militia, shall be marked distinctly in some visible place, in such manner as the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government, may direct; and in case any Militia man shall sell, pawn or lose, unless he proves some unavoidable accident, any of the arms or accoutrements to him delivered, or neglect or refuse to return the same to his Captain, or other officer appointed to receive the same, at the time of his being discharged, every such Militia man shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding five pounds current money; and on proof of such offence, by the oath of one credible witness, other than the prosecutor, before one or more Justices of the Peace, if the said penalty is not immediately paid, the said Militia Man, shall, by a Warrant under the hands and seals of such Justices, be committed to the nearest Goal, there to remain for a term not exceeding one month, or until he shall have paid the said penalty.

XXXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, that the person or persons informing against any offender as aforesaid, shall be entitled to receive one half of the fine hereby imposed.

XXXV. And whereas the Governor of this Province, in virtue of the power and authority to him granted by the Act passed in the thirty-fourth year of His Majesty's Reign herein before mentioned, and in conformity to the restrictions therein contained, did cause to be printed in the English and French languages (under the title of "Rules and Articles for the better Government of the Militia of the Province of Lower Canada when embodied for service,") such of the articles of war then in force for the Government of His Majesty's forces in this Province, as he considered applicable to the situation of the Militia of this Province when embodied for service; Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the said Rules and Articles for the better Government of the Militia of the Province of Lower Canada when embodied for service, shall extend to and be binding on all the Officers, non commissioned Officers and private men of the Militia who shall be drawn out, and embodied under the authority of this Act and shall be judicially taken notice of by all Judges and in all Courts whatsoever.

XXXVII. And provided also, and be it further enacted, that nothing contained in this Act, shall be construed to extend to repeal an Act passed by the Legislature of this Province, in the thirty-third year of the reign of his Majesty, intituled, "An Act for granting indulgencies to the people called Quakers."

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that when it shall be necessary to transmit orders respecting Militia duty, from one officer to another, or from one parish to another, it shall and may be lawful, for any Field Officer of the Militia, to call on every Militia man of the District or battalion to which he belongs, or for any Captain, or other officer, to call on any Militia man of the company to which he belongs, to carry such orders to such person or place as he shall direct, and every such Militia-man (not being incapacitated by sickness or unavoidable necessity,) is hereby required to perform such duty, with diligence; and for every refusal or neglect to perform such duty, he shall forfeit the sum of ten shillings current money of this Province.

And provided also, that each battalion in the said Districts, shall furnish only a number of men proportioned to the whole of the Militia Men of the respective Districts, of which said battalion makes a part, conformable to the orders which may be issued by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government, for the time being, to that effect: and no part of the Militia men called out in manner aforesaid, shall be obliged to continue in service, for more than twenty-eight days, and the said Militia shall not be again

Provided also, that such person as shall consent to become a substitute for any person so balloted or commanded shall be subject to the like service, rules, regulations, and penalties, as if serving on his own behalf, and shall not be exempted from his turn of service by ballot or command, but subject to the same in like manner, as if he had not served as the substitute of another, and shall be disqualified from becoming a substitute, a second time, until he shall have served as a Militia man, on his own behalf.

him to pay the same to the Adjutant General, who shall pay to the different officers claiming payment of monies disbursed by them, respectively, the sum or sums which shall have been approved of, in the manner herein-before directed.

XLIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that no complaint or prosecution shall be brought against any person or persons, for any fine or penalty herein-before imposed, unless the same is commenced within six months after the offence committed, except in cases of Desertion or harbouring, concealing, aiding or abetting Deserters, or buying, taking in exchange or concealing Arms or Accoutrements delivered to Militia.

XLV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that if any action shall be brought against any person or persons for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, such action or suit shall be commenced within six months next after the fact committed, and not afterwards: and the Defendant or Defendants, in every such action or suit, may plead the general issue, and give this Act and the special matter in evidence, at any trial to be had thereupon. And if Judgment shall be given for the Defendant or Defendants, in any such action or suit, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be non-suited, or discontinue his or their action or suit, after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, the Defendant or Defendants shall have treble costs, and have the like remedy for the same, as any Defendant hath in other cases to recover costs by Law.

Provided always, that where the fine awarded exceeds forty shillings, it shall and may be lawful for the Defendant to appeal to the next quarter Sessions of the Peace for the District, on depositing in the hands of one of the Justices, before whom he shall have been convicted, the sum awarded against him, which sum shall be repaid to the appellant, if the Judgment is reversed; and if the Judgment is confirmed, or a greater sum is awarded against the appellant, he shall pay to the Prosecutor, the costs of the Appeal, to be taxed by said Justices in their Quarter Sessions, and levied by Warrant of distress and sale, of the Goods and Chattels of the Appellant, directed in the manner herein before mentioned.

And the due application of all such monies, pursuant to the directions of this Act, shall be accounted for to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in such manner and form, as His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, shall direct.

LII. And be it Further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that in case of war, invasion, or imminent danger thereof, insurrection, or other pressing exigences, if the Legislature shall then be separated by such adjournment or prorogation as will not expire within fourteen days, it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or person administering the Government, to issue a Proclamation for the meeting of the Legislature, within fourteen days; and the Legislature shall accordingly meet, and sit upon such day as shall be appointed by such Proclamation, and continue to fit and act, in like manner, to all intents and purposes, as if it had stood adjourned or prorogued to same day.
