

The Provincial Statutes of Lower-Canada, Being the first session of the fourth Provincial Parliament of Lower-Canada. Quebec: P. E. Desbarats, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1805.

45 George III – Chapter 1

An Act further to continue, for a limited time, an Act passed in the Forty-third year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for the better preservation of his Majesty's Government, as by Law happily established in this Province." (25th March, 1805.)

Whereas an Act was passed by the Legislature of this Province in the forty third year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for the better preservation of his Majesty's Government as by Law happily established in this Province," which Act was to have continuance only until the end of the present Session of the Provincial Parliament. And whereas it is expedient that the said Act should be further continued; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America', and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province;" and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the said Act and all matters and things therein contained, shall continue to be in force until the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and six, and from thence to the end of the then next Session of the Provincial Parliament. Provided always, that after the close of the present war, all and every person or persons committed under the authority of the said Act, shall have the benefit and advantage of the laws relating to or providing for the liberty of the subject, in this Province.
