

The Provincial Statutes of Lower-Canada, Being the first session of the fourth Provincial Parliament of Lower-Canada. Quebec: P. E. Desbarats, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1805.

45 George III – Chapter 4

An Act further to continue, for a limited time, and Act passed in the forty third year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for establishing Regulations respecting Aliens and certain Subjects of his Majesty, who have resided in France, coming into this Province or residing therein," (25th March, 1805.)

Whereas an Act was passed in the forty third year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for establishing Regulations respecting Aliens and certain Subjects of his Majesty, who have resided in France coming into this Province or residing therein," which Act will expire at the end of this Session. And whereas it is expedient and necessary that the said Act be continued, Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the government of the said Province,'" and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the said Act, intituled, "An Act for establishing regulations respecting Aliens and certain Subjects of his Majesty, who have resided in France coming into this Province or residing therein," and all matters and things therein contained, shall continue to be in force, until the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and six, and from thence to the end of the then next Session of the Provincial Parliament, and no longer.
