

The Provincial Statutes of Lower-Canada, Being the second session of the seventh Provincial Parliament of Lower-Canada. Quebec: P. E. Desbarats, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1812.

52 George III – Chapter 14 (Session 1)

An Act to continue for a limited time an Act passed in the fortieth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to give further powers to the Executive Government to prevent the introduction or spreading of infectious or contagious diseases in this Province." (19th May, 1812.)

Whereas an Act was passed by the Legislature of this Province, in the fortieth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to give further powers to the Executive Government to prevent the introduction or spreading of infectious or contagious diseases in this Province:" which Act is to have continuance only unto the end of the present Session of the Legislature. And whereas it is expedient and necessary further to continue the said Act; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act of the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province." And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same that the said Act, intituled, "An Act to give further powers to the Executive Government to prevent the introduction or spreading of infectious or contagious diseases in this Province," and all matters and things therein contained shall continue and be in force until the first day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, and no longer.
