

The Provincial Statutes of Lower-Canada, Being the second session of the seventh Provincial Parliament of Lower-Canada. Quebec: P. E. Desbarats, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1812.

52 George III – Chapter 6 (Session 1)

An Act to continue for a limited time An Act passed in the forty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to provide for the maintenance of good order on Sundays and Holydays in the Country Parishes of this Province." (19th May, 1812.)

Whereas An Act was passed by the Legislature of this Province in the forty eighth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to provide for the maintenance of good order on Sundays and Holydays in the Country parishes of this Province," Which Act will only continue in force to the end of the present Session of the Legislature, and it being expedient and necessary that the said act should be continued. Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower Canada constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of An Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America;' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the said Act, intituled, "An Act to provide for the maintenance of good order on Sundays and Holydays in the Country Parishes of this Province" and all matters and things therein contained, shall continue and be in force until the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, and no longer.
