

The Provincial Statutes of Lower-Canada, Being the fourth session of the seventh Provincial Parliament of Lower-Canada. Quebec: P. E. Desbarats, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1813.

53 George III – Chapter 7

An Act to continue for a limited time an act passed in the fifty-first year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for the relief of insane Persons and for the support of Foundlings, and others therein mentioned." (15th February, 1813.)

Whereas an Act was passed in the fifty-first year of the Reign of His Majesty, intituled, "An Act for the relief of Insane Persons and for the support of Foundlings and others therein mentioned," which act will remain in force until the first day of April of this year one thousand eight hundred and thirteen and no longer, and whereas it is expedient and necessary that the said act should be continued, Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual Provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America;' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province;" and it is hereby enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the said act, intituled, "An Act for the relief of Insane Persons and for the support of Foundlings and others therein mentioned," shall be and continue to be in force until the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen and no longer.
