

The Provincial Statutes of Lower-Canada, Being the fifth session of the seventh Provincial Parliament of Lower-Canada. Quebec: P. E. Desbarats, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1814.

54 George III – Chapter 1

An Act further to continue for a limited time an Act passed in the forty-eighth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the Trial of Controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in the House of Assembly of Lower Canada." (17th March, 1814.)

Whereas an Act made and passed by the Legislature of this Province of Lower Canada in the forty-eighth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the Trial of Controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in the House of Assembly of Lower Canada," will expire and cease to be in force on the Nineteenth day of May next ensuing, and that it is expedient to continue the same : Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act, passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual Provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," And it is hereby enacted by the authority aforesaid, that she said Act in all its parts shall be continued and remain in force until the First day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, and no longer.
