

The Provincial Statutes of Lower-Canada, Being the first session of the eighth Provincial Parliament of Lower-Canada. Quebec: P. E. Desbarats, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1815.

55 George III – Chapter 4

An Act to continue an Act passed in Forty-second Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to empower the Justices of the Peace, to make for a limited time, Rules and Regulations for the Government of Apprentices and others." (25th March, 1815.)

Whereas an Act passed in the Forty-second Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to empower the Justices of the Peace, to make for a limited time, Rules and Regulations for the Government of Apprentices and others," which by certain other Acts, passed in the Forty-third, forty-seventh, and fifty-first Years of His Majesty's Reign was continued unto the first day of April, One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and no longer. And whereas it is necessary that the said Act passed in the Forty-second Year of His Majesty's Reign should be further continued; Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the Fourteenth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province;" And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the said Act, intituled, "An Act to empower the Justices of the Peace to make for a limited time, Rules and Regulations for the Government of Apprentices and others," and all matters and things therein contained, shall continue to be in force until the first day of January, One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, and from thence to the end of the then next Session of the Provincial Parliament and no longer. Provided always, that all and every Order or Orders issued and published under the authority of this Act shall not continue to be in force longer than to the said first day of January, One thousand eight hundred and seventeen; and from thence to the end of the then next Session of the Provincial Parliament.
