

The Provincial Statutes of Lower-Canada, Being the first session of the ninth Provincial Parliament of Lower-Canada. Quebec: P. E. Desbarats, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1817.

57 George III – Chapter 22

An Act further to continue for a limited time, two Acts therein mentioned, for the regulation of the Lumber Trade. (22 March, 1817.)

Whereas an Act was passed in the forty-eighth year of His Majesty's Reign intituled, "An Act for the better regulation of the Lumber Trade," which Act was continued and amended by an Act made and passed in the fifty-first year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to continue for a limited time and amend an Act passed in the forty-eighth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for the better regulation of the Lumber Trade;'" which said Acts were continued by another Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to continue for a limited time, two Acts therein mentioned, for the better regulation of the Lumber Trade;" and by another subsequent Act, passed in the fifty fifth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to continue for a limited time, two Acts therein mentioned, for the better regulation of the Lumber Trade;" which two first mentioned Acts, will continue in force until the first day of May next, and no longer: And whereas it is expedient further to continue both the said first mentioned Acts: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great-Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North-America;' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province;" and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the herein-before recited Act, passed in the forty-eighth year of His Majesty's Reign, and the Act also herein-before recited, passed in the fifty first year of His Majesty's Reign, and all matters and things therein contained, shall continue to be in force until the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and no longer.
