1 George IV – Chapter 12

An Act further to extend for a limited time, the duration of an Act passed in the fifty-fifth year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to grant new Duties to His Majesty to supply the wants of the Province." (17th March, 1821.)

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,

Whereas an Act passed in the fifty-fifth year of the Reign of His Majesty our late Most Gracious Sovereign, Lord George the Third, intituled, "An Act to grant new Duties to His Majesty to supply the wants of the Province," will expire on the first day of May next, which said Act it is expedient further to continue for a limited time; May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great-Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America,' and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the above-mentioned Act passed in the fifty-fifth year of the Reign of His late Majesty George the Third, intituled, "An Act to grant new Duties to His Majesty to supply the wants of the Province," and all and every the matters and things therein-mentioned and contained, shall continue to be in force, and the Duties by the said Act imposed, shall further continue to be raised, levied, collected and paid, as in and by the said Act it is specified and provided, until the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, and no longer.
