

The Provincial Statutes of Lower-Canada, Being the third session of the eleventh Provincial Parliament of Lower-Canada. Quebec: P. E. Desbarats, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1823.

3 George IV – Chapter 2

An Act further to continue for a limited time an Act passed in the fifty-seventh year of the Reign of His late Majesty, George the Third, intituled, "An Act to facilitate the Administration of Justice in certain Small Matters therein-mentioned, in the Country Parishes." (22d March, 1823.)

Whereas it is expedient further to continue, for a limited time, an Act passed in the fifty-seventh year of the Reign of His late Majesty, George the Third, intituled, "An Act to facilitate the Administration of Justice in certain Small Matters therein-mentioned in the Country Parishes," which said Act pursuant to an Act passed in the first year of his present Majesty's Reign, Chapter third, was further continued until the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, to which day the duration of the said Act is limited; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Lower-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great-Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the said Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of the Reign of His late Majesty, George the Third, intituled "An Act to facilitate the Administration of Justice in certain final matters therein-mentioned, in the Country Parishes," and all matters and things therein mentioned, shall continue to be in force until the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, and no longer.
