and if actually exported in the same vessel, duties to be repaid.

Master to make oath.

I do swear, that the following articles, to wit:
 are now actually on board the whereof I am Master; that the same articles were imported into this Province in the same vessel, and are the same articles mentioned and specified in the entry and report of the same vessel and cargo at this office, on the                      day of                      that the said articles are

are now in the same state and condition in which they were at the time of Importation into this Province; that no part thereof hath been landed since the entry and report thereof as aforesaid; and that the same or any part thereof are not to be landed in any part of this Province, to the best of my knowledge and belief. So help me GOD.

And further, That the owner or consignee of the same articles shall at the same time make and subscribe an affidavit (to be indorsed upon the said affidavit of the said Master) before the said Treasurer or one of his deputies, stating that he is the owner or consignee of such articles, and that the contents of such affidavit so made by the said Master are just and true, according to the best of his knowledge and belief.

Articles reported for exportation being landed contrary to this Act, vessel and goods to be forfeited.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if at any time within One year after the report so made of the articles intended to be exported in the same bottom in which they were imported, it shall be discovered that any of those articles have been fraudulently landed in any part of this Province, the owner or consignee of such articles and the Master or owner of such ship or vessel shall severally forfeit and pay the sum of One hundred Pounds for each offence, to be recovered by information to be made and filed by his Majesty's Attorney General, in manner as before mentioned and applied, (after deducting the costs and charges) one half to the Informer and the other half to be paid into the hands of the Treasurer of the Province for the use thereof.

If discovered within one year, that articles reported for exportation have been fraudulently landed, the owner or consignee and master or owner of the ship to forfeit £100 each.

How recovered and applied.

XII. And be it further enacted, That upon the following dutiable articles which shall be imported into this Province after the commencement of this Act, and upon which the rates and duties herein before imposed have been paid or secured to be paid as aforesaid, there shall be allowed upon Exportation of the same the following drawback, to wit: For every gallon of Rum, six pence half penny; for every gallon of Wine, Brandy or Gin, eight pence; and for every hundred weight of Brown Sugar, two shillings.—Provided always, that one hundred gallons or more of Liquor, in the original package or cask, or ten hundred weight or more of Brown Sugar are exported in one ship or vessel at one time; and also that the same be exported within Six Months from the time of the Importation thereof.

Drawback allowed upon articles exported.

Proviso.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the drawbacks herein before allowed, shall be paid by the Treasurer or one of his Deputies as aforesaid, to the Owner or Importer thereof, out of the Monies arising from the duties on the same articles so exported when the same Monies shall be received and not before. Provided always, that previous to any part of such drawback being paid, the Owner or Importer of such articles shall at the time of exporting the same, make and subscribe the following Oath before the Treasurer or one of his deputies, to wit:—

Drawback to be paid out of the duties on the articles exported.

Proviso.

I do swear, that the by me Oath of the Importer. now shipped on board the whereof is Master, was lawfully imported into this Province in the Master, from and that the duties thereon have been paid by me or secured to be paid at this office; and that the same or any part thereof is not intended to be re-landed in any part of this Province, to the best of my knowledge and belief. So help me GOD.

And provided also, That the Master of the ship or vessel in which the same articles are to be exported, shall make and subscribe the following Oath, to be indorsed on the last mentioned affidavit before the Treasurer or one of his deputies, to wit:—

I do swear that the articles shipped by as men-Oath of the Master. tioned in the affidavit upon the other side hereof, are now actually on board the whereof I am Master, bound for and that the same or any part thereof are not again to be re-landed in any part of this Province, to the best of my knowledge and belief. So help me GOD.

And provided also, That it shall be incumbent on the Owner or Importer of such dutiable articles, to produce to the Treasurer or to the deputy, to whom the duties shall have been secured, a certificate under the hand and seal of the Collector or principal officer of the Customs, at the port or place to which the same shall be exported, or if sent to a Foreign port, a certificate under the hands of two of the principal Merchants there residing (authenticated under the seal of office of a public Notary) that the same articles have been there landed: And provided also, that it shall be further incumbent on the Owner or Importer (upon producing such certificate and requiring the drawback as aforesaid) to make and subscribe the following Oath before the Treasurer or one of his deputies, to wit:—

I do swear, that the articles by me exported on board the Master, a certificate of the landing of which is now by me exhibited, have been really and bona fide landed at and that the same or any part thereof are not again to be landed in any part of this Province, to the best of my knowledge and belief. So help me GOD.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if any of the before specified articles shall be fraudulently re-landed in any part of this Province after shipment for Exportation as aforesaid, the same shall be forfeited, proceeded against and applied in the manner herein before directed.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if it shall be discovered at any time before or within one year after the drawback shall be so received, upon the Exportation of any dutiable articles as aforesaid, that any of those articles have been fraudulently re-landed in any part of this Province, the Owner or Importer of such articles shall forfeit and pay the sum of One hundred Pounds for each offence, to be recovered by information to be made and filed by His Majesty's Attorney-General, in manner as before mentioned, and applied, (after deducting the costs and charges) one half to the Informer and the other half to be paid into the hands of the Treasurer of the Province for the use thereof.

XVI. And in order to deter and prevent as much as possible persons from being engaged in illicit trade, which if practised will operate greatly to the prejudice of the fair dealer as well as to the public Revenue of this Province, Be it further enacted, that it shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Province and all and every of his deputies, as also of the Tide Surveyor in the City of Saint John, to be vigilant in detecting all persons that may be so engaged, as well as all articles made liable to duty by virtue of this Act, illegally introduced or smuggled into any part of this Province: And all articles in and by this Act made dutiable, which shall be seized and condemned and sold at the Custom-House or by any officer of the King's customs in any part of this Province, for having been illegally introduced or smuggled into the same, shall be liable to the same rates and duties as if those articles had been legally imported and entered at the Treasurer's office, as required by this Act: And the purchaser or purchasers of any such articles at such Custom-House sales, shall within Twenty-four hours after the same purchases shall be made, and before any part of such articles shall be vend- ed or consumed, make report to the said Treasurer or his deputy at that place in writing, and under oath before the said Treasurer or his deputy aforesaid, of the articles so purchased as aforesaid, and the duties arising thereon shall at the same time be paid or secured to be paid, in the same manner and under the same regulations as duties arising upon such articles when legally imported as aforesaid: And in case of refusal and neglect so to make report and entry of such articles so purchased, the same are hereby declared forfeited, and shall and may be searched for, seized, condemned, sold and applied in the same manner as is herein before provided by the third section of this Act. And if such articles or any part thereof cannot be found, then the purchaser thereof shall forfeit and pay the sum of One hundred Pounds, to be recovered and applied in the same manner and to the same uses as is provided in and by the same section of this Act.

Treasurer to be vigilant.
