 An ACT to regulate the exportation of Fish, and to repeal the Laws now in force relating thereto.
Repealed by 10. & 11. 5. 4. 2. 28.
 Passed the 24th of March, 1819.

WHEREAS the Acts now in force for regulating the exportation of Fish, are blended with those regulating the exportation of Lumber, and it is expedient that they should be distinct and separate : And whereas some further regulations are necessary in addition to those contained in the same Acts, Preamble.

I. Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Assembly, That so much of an Act, made and passed in the thirty-seventh Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled " An Act for regulating the exportation of Fish and Lumber, and for repealing the Laws now in force regulating the same"---and also of the several Acts mentioned

The several Acts for regulating the exportation of Fish and Lumber, so far as relate to the article of Fish, repealed.

mentioned in the same Act---and also of all other Acts in amendment thereof, as relates to the article of Fish,---be, and the same are hereby repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, that all pickled herrings, mackarel, cod and scale fish, for exportation, shall be packed in barrels of twenty-eight gallons at least, which barrels shall be made of well-seasoned timber, free from sap, and have three sufficient hoops on each bilge, and three on each end---the fish shall be all of one kind, sweet, free from rust, and closely packed, and the barrels full of strong pickle; and that all salmon for exportation, shall be packed in tierces, half-tierces, barrels, and half-barrels; which tierces, half-tierces, barrels, and half-barrels, shall be made of sound seasoned wood, free from sap, sufficient to hold pickle, and shall be full bound; each tierce shall contain three hundred pounds; each half-tierce, one hundred and fifty pounds; each barrel, two hundred pounds; and each half-barrel, one hundred pounds, exclusive of the salt, and shall be full of strong pickle; and all barrels hereafter to be made, which shall contain less than twenty-eight gallons, shall be forfeited; and on complaint and proof before any two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County where such barrels shall be offered for sale, the same shall be adjudged to be forfeited, and shall by warrant under the hands and seals of such Justices, be seized, and burnt or destroyed, by a Constable; and all pickled fish, shipped in barrels of a smaller size, or salmon shipped in tierces, half-tierces, barrels, or half-barrels, containing less weight than is herein provided, shall be forfeited, and shall and may on complaint and proof before any two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County where such offence shall be committed, or the Mayor, or Recorder, and any scale fish, when inspected in bulk, and shall continue in such office until other proper persons are appointed and sworn in their stead. Provided always and be it further enacted, that in Counties where the General Sessions of the Peace have been already holden for the present year, it shall and may be lawful for the appointment of such Inspectors to be made for the residue of the same year, at Special Sessions to be for that purpose summoned.

V. And be it further enacted, that one-half of all forfeitures or fines imposed by this Act, shall be paid to him or them who shall sue for the same, and the other half to the benefit of the Poor of the Parish where such offence shall be committed; and if the same shall not exceed twenty shillings, it shall be recoverable before any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace; or where the same shall be more than twenty shillings, and shall not exceed three pounds, before any two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, together with costs of prosecution, on the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, by warrant of distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, under the hand and seal of such Justice or Justices; and for want of sufficient distress, such offender shall suffer not less than ten, nor more than thirty days imprisonment; and in case such fine or the value thereof shall exceed three pounds, the same may be recovered in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in this Province, with costs of suit.

One-half of all forfeitures or fines to be paid to the person suing for the same, the other half to the Poor of the Parish.

To be recovered by distress, &c.

Where no goods, offender to be committed.

VI. And be it further enacted, that all prosecutions under and by virtue of the provisions of this Act, shall be commenced within six months after the time such offence was committed.

All prosecutions under this Act to be commenced within 6 months.

VII.

Not to be construed to interfere with the Charter of the City of St. John.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted; that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to abridge, diminish, or interfere with the powers given to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of Saint John, by the Charter of the said City.

CAP. XIV.

An ACT further to alter and extend the provisions of an Act, intituled "An Act to encourage the erection of a Passage Boat to be worked by steam, for facilitating the communication between the City of Saint John and Fredericton," and to give further encouragement to the present Proprietors of the Steam Passage Boat erected in pursuance of the same Act.

Passed the 24th of March, 1819.

Preamble.

52. G. 3. C. 24. WHEREAS a Steam Boat has been erected and finished agreeably to the directions and provisions of two Acts of the General Assembly of this Province---one passed in the fifty-second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to encourage the erection of a Passage Boat to be worked by Steam, for facilitating the communication between the City of St. John and Fredericton"---and the other, passed in the fifty-third Year of the same Reign, 53. G. 3. C. 4. "to alter and extend the provisions of the said Act,"---and has been used and employed for the purposes in the said Acts mentioned, for three years last past; and the same Boat is now owned by John Ward, Robert Smith, Hugh Johnston, and Peter Fraser, Esquires. And whereas from the very small profit which the large capital vested in the said Boat has already produced, there is good cause to believe that the residue of the term
