

CAP. XXIII.

An ACT to alter and amend an Act, intitled "An Act for the "organization and regulation of the Militia of this Province."

Passed the 21st March, 1822.

repealed by
6. G. 4. c. 18

WHEREAS in and by the ninth Section of an Act made and passed in the fifty-sixth year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled "An Act for the organization and regulation of the Militia of this Province," it is enacted, that fines shall be recoverable before the Captains and Commanding Officers of Companies, and be levied by distress and sale of the delinquent's goods, by an order of such Commanding Officer, directed to a Non-Commissioned Officer of the Company, who is thereby authorized to serve and execute the same.

Preamble.

56. G. 3. c. 6

And whereas Non-Commissioned Officers have found it very difficult, and in many cases impossible to levy the fines or execute the warrants in such cases to them directed, and it is considered that the fines may be levied with much greater facility and certainty if the orders and warrants are directed to the Constables in the several Parishes, to be by them executed as Justices' summons and warrants are accustomed to be done: And it is a matter of great importance, in order to enforce the punctual attendance of the Militia, that the fines should be strictly exacted---

I. Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Assembly, That the said ninth Section of the said Act, and also so much of the eleventh and fourteenth Sec-

CAP. XXIV.

An ACT to alter and amend the Laws now in force, for assessing, collecting, and levying, of rates for public charges.

Passed the 21st March, 1822.

WHEREAS by the Laws now in force for the assessment of rates for public charges and expenses, the Assessors in the several Towns or Parishes are authorized and empowered to apportion the sums to be levied upon the said Towns or Parishes respectively, among the inhabitants thereof, in such manner as they in their discretion shall think just and reasonable: And whereas the exercise of such discretion without regulation or appeal, has been productive of great dissimilarity in the mode of apportioning and assessing the rates throughout the Province: And whereas by the same Laws the real estate of non-residents is not liable to be assessed---

I. Be it enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Assembly, That from and after the passing of this Act, all such sums of money to be assessed and raised for any County, or Town, or Parish charges and expenses, under or by virtue of an Act or Acts of the General Assembly for that purpose made, or to be made, shall be assessed, levied, and raised, by an equal rate upon the poll
