CAP. VIII.

An ACT further to extend the Bounties on Fish brought into this Province.

Passed 17th March, 1825.

WHEREAS it is deemed of the utmost importance to the increase of the Commerce of this Province, that such further encouragement should be given to the Cod Fisheries, and also to the importation of Merchantable Codfish suitable to the Mediterranean Markets, and to those of the new States of South America, as the Legislature have it in their power to bestow.

Preamble.

I. Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That from and after the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, in addition to the bounties granted in, and by an Act made and passed in the third year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to encourage the Inhabitants of this Province who are engaged in prosecuting the Cod and Scale Fisheries, by granting bounties on the same," and an Act made and passed in the fifth year of His said present Majesty's Reign, to extend the provisions of the said first recited Act, a further bounty of eight pence per Quintal shall be paid up-

Additional Bounty of 8d per Quintal upon all merchantable Cod Fish suitable for the Mediterranean markets and those of the new States of South America, imported in fishing vessels already entitled to the bounty of 20s. per ton, and sold to Merchants resident in the Province.

on all merchantable Codfish suitable to the Mediterranean Markets, and to those of the new States of South America, which shall be imported or brought into this Province in fishing Vessels of thirty Tons and upwards, which by the said recited Acts are now entitled to a bounty of twenty Shillings per Ton, and sold to Merchants or Traders resident therein, and also upon all merchantable Codfish suitable to the above named markets and imported or brought into this Province by British Subjects in Vessels or Boats of any description under thirty Tons, and also in vessels over thirty Tons which are not by Law already entitled to receive a bounty of twenty Shillings per Ton, or which may be the produce of the home or shore fisheries of this Province, and are actually landed and sold to some Merchant or Trader resident therein, a bounty of one Shilling and eight Pence per Quintal; the said bounties to be paid out of the Treasury of the Province to the resident Merchant or Trader purchasing and receiving such Fish, by Warrant of the Lieutenant-Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, to be issued by and with the advice and consent of His Majesty's Council: Provided always, that the sum to be paid in any one year for such additional bounties, shall not exceed the sum of one thousand Pounds.

Upon merchantable Cod Fish suitable to the above named markets imported by British Subjects in Vessels of any description not entitled to the bounty of 20s. per Ton, being the produce of the home or shore Fisheries & actually landed & sold to a resident Merchant a bounty of 1s. 8d. per Quintal, to be paid to the Merchant receiving the Fish, by Warrant of the Governor.

No bounty to be paid unless the Fish be inspected by a sworn Inspector and ascertained to be of a proper quality.

II. And be it further enacted, That no bounty granted by this Act shall be paid, unless the Fish upon which the bounty is to be claimed, has been inspected and examined by some sworn Inspector and Culler of Fish, and and ascertained to be of a quality denominated merchantable, and suitable for the Mediterranean market, and those of the new States of South America; and such Inspector shall grant and subscribe a Certificate declaring the quantity of Fish so inspected by him, and that the same is of a merchantable quality, and fit for the Mediterranean market, and those of the new States of South America, and stating the names and residence of the seller and purchaser thereof: And it shall further be requisite for the resident Merchant or Trader applying for such bounty, to make affidavit before the Treasurer, or Deputy Treasurer of the County, District or place where such Merchant or Trader resides, that he hath actually paid, or secured to be paid in Cash to the person or persons bringing such merchantable Fish into the Province, and landing and selling the same as herein before mentioned, within three months from the time of purchase, the full amount of the bounty claimed under this Act, and also that he believes the same Fish were actually caught and cured by British Subjects, and also that the said Fish were purchased by him as being of a merchantable quality, and fit for the Mediterranean market, and those of the new States of South America, and that to the best of his knowledge they are of such quality.

Inspector to certify the quality of the Fish with the name of the Seller and purchaser.

Merchant to make oath that he has paid or secured to be paid the bounty to the Seller of the Fish,

And that he believes the Fish were caught and cured by British Subjects, and that they were purchased by him as being of a merchantable quality.

III. And be it further enacted, That the aforesaid certificate of the Inspector, and affidavit of the resident Merchant claiming the bounty, shall be transmitted to the office of the Secretary of the Province, to be laid before

CAP. IX.

An ACT for the better examining and auditing the Public Accounts of this Province.

Passed 17th March, 1825.

WHEREAS the present method of accounting for the expenditure of the Public Monies of this Province is extremely defective, and it is highly expedient to make effectual provision by Law, for such examination of the Public Accounts as may be necessary for the security of the Public interest.
