

CAP. XVI.

An Act to repeal an Act, intituled, "An Act for the better security of the Navigation of certain Harbours in the County of Northumberland;" and to make more effectual provision for the better security of the Harbours in the Counties of Northumberland, Kent, and Gloucester.

Passed 8th March, 1830.

WHEREAS, the Laws now in force for the better security of the Navigation of certain Harbours in the County of Northumberland, have been found ineffectual. Preamble.

And whereas, it is necessary, for the greater safety and conveniency of the Navigation of certain Bays and Harbours in the Counties of Northumberland, Kent, and Gloucester, that Buoys and Beacons, be erected in the said Bays and Harbours, and that provision be made for defraying such expences as may be incurred in erecting, repairing, and replacing such Buoys and Beacons.

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the President, Council and Assembly, That an Act made and passed in the fiftieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled, "An Act for the better security of the navigation of certain Harbours in the County of Northumberland;" and also, an Act made and passed in the Third year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled, "An Act to make perpetual an Act, intituled, "An Act for the better security of the navigation of certain Harbours in the County of Northumberland," be, and the same are hereby repealed.

50, Geo. 3. c. 5. and
3, Geo. 4. c. 4.—repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for such Commissioners as His Honor the President or Commander in Chief for the time being, shall appoint, or which may be appointed, or the major part of them, Commissioners to cause such Buoys and Beacons to be erected as they shall think necessary.

to erect, build, rebuild, replace, and support, in the said Bays and Harbours, such a number of Buoy and Beacons as they or the major part of them, shall think necessary, for the safety and conveniency of the navigation of the same.

Commissioners to render an account of monies received and expended, to the Treasurer to be transmitted to the Secretary's Office.

VII. And be it further enacted, That Commissioners already appointed, or who may be appointed in pursuance of this Act, shall, on the twentieth day of December, in each and every year, render an account, duly attested, of the monies from time to time received and expended by them in pursuance of this Act, to the Treasurer of the Province, to be by him transmitted, with his account, to the Secretary Office, and shall likewise render a copy of such account to the first Court of General Sessions in their Counties respectively, in each and every year; and the balance, (if any,) of the monies so received by them, in the hands of the Commissioners of the harbours respectively, to be applied by the said Commissioners, or the major part of them, for the purpose of further improving the navigation of the said Bays and Harbours.

Balance of monies to be applied for further improving the Navigation.

Penalty for removing or injuring any Buoy or Beacon.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any person or persons, shall take away, destroy, deface, or remove any of the said Beacons or Buoys, such offender or offenders, shall, on due conviction thereof, by the oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, before any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding Fifteen pounds, to be recovered and applied as aforesaid; and on failure of the payment, or want of goods and chattels whereon to levy; such offender or offenders shall be committed by such Justice or Justices, to the Common Gaol of the County, there to remain for a space of time not exceeding three months.

On failure of payment, offender to be committed to Gaol.

IX. And be it further enacted, That this Act ^{Limitation.} shall continue and be in force for ten years.

CAP. XVII.

An Act in addition to an Act, intituled "an Act to enable the Justices of the Peace for the several Counties in this Province for the time being, to receive for Public uses Grants of Lands lying in their respective Counties, and to regulate the Commons belonging to the several Townships or Parishes within the same."

Passed 8th March, 1830.

WHEREAS, by the second Section of an ^{Preamble.} Act made and passed in the Twenty-sixth year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled, "An Act to enable the Justices of the Peace of the several Counties in this Province for the time being, to receive for public uses, Grants of Land lying in their respective Counties, and to regulate the Commons belonging to the several Townships or Parishes within the same," the Justices of the Peace for the several Counties within this Province, are only authorized to Lease for a term of Years, Lands granted to them or heretofore given for public uses.

And whereas, in the County of Northumberland, in consequence of the Town Plot of Newcastle being laid out through the County Lot granted for public uses to the Justices of the Peace of that County, it has been found extremely inconvenient and discouraging to the Inhabitants, and disadvantageous to the Town, that the Justices of the Peace are not authorized to give Freehold Titles to such parts of the said County lot as they have sold or may hereafter sell, inasmuch as it has been found to hinder and deter the settling and improvement of the
