of £3,000.

When 400
shares are subscribed for a meeting to be called to choose Directors and make Bye Laws
&c.

Annual meeting
for choice of Directors to be held on 1st

II. And be it enacted, That the capital stock of the said Corporation shall consist of current gold and silver coins of the Province to the amount of one hundred thousand pounds; the sum of fifty thousand pounds, one half part thereof, to be paid in current gold and silver coins of the Province within one year from the passing of this Act, and the remaining half of all the shares of the said capital stock shall be paid in such instalments, and at such days and times as the directors of the said Bank may find occasion to require the same, thirty days notice being previously given in two of the newspapers in this Province of the time and place of such payment; the whole amount of said stock to be divided into shares of fifty pounds each, making in the whole two thousand shares; and provided also, that the whole of the capital stock shall be called in within five years after the passing of this Act.

III. And be it enacted, That the said Corporation shall have full power and authority to take, receive, hold, possess and enjoy in fee simple any lands, tenements, real estates and rents to any amount not exceeding three thousand pounds: Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall prevent or restrain the said Corporation from taking or holding real estate to any amount whatsoever by mortgage taken as collateral security for the payment of any sum or sums of money advanced by or debts due to the said Corporation: Provided further, that the said Corporation shall on no account lend money upon mortgage or upon lands, or other fixed property, nor shall such be purchased by the said Corporation upon any pretext whatsoever, unless by way of additional security for debts contracted with the said Corporation in the course of its dealings.

IV. And be it enacted, That whenever four hundred shares shall have been subscribed of the said capital stock, a general meeting of the members and stockholders of the said Corporation, or the major part of them, shall take place by notice in one or more of the public newspapers thirty days previous to such meeting, for the purpose of making, ordaining and establishing such bye laws, ordinances and regulations for the good management of the affairs of the said Corporation as the members and stockholders of the said Corporation shall deem necessary, and also for the purpose of choosing thirteen directors being stockholders and members of the said Corporation, under and in pursuance of the rules and regulations hereinafter made and provided; which directors so chosen shall serve until the first annual meeting for choice of directors, and shall have full power and authority to manage the concerns of the said Corporation, and shall commence the operations of the said Bank, subject nevertheless to the rules and regulations hereinafter made and provided; at which general meeting the members and stockholders of the said Corporation, or the major part of them, shall determine the amount of payments to be made on each share, also the mode of transferring and disposing of the stock and profits thereof, which being entered on the books of the said Corporation shall be binding on the said stockholders, their successors and assigns.

V. And be it enacted, That there shall be a general meeting of the stockholders and members of the said Corporation to be annually holden on the first Tuesday in May in each and every year at the City of Saint John, at which annual nual meeting there shall be chosen by a majority of the said stockholders and members of the said Corporation thirteen directors who shall be resident in the City or County of Saint John, and continue in office for one year, or until others are chosen in their room; in the choice of which directors the stockholders and members of the said Corporation shall vote according to the rule hereinafter mentioned; and the directors when chosen shall at their first meeting after their election choose out of their number a president: Provided always, that seven of the directors in office shall be re-elected at such annual meeting for the next succeeding twelve months, of which the president shall always be one.

Tuesday in May.

Directors to choose a President.

VI. And be it enacted, That the directors for the time being shall have power to appoint such officers, clerks and servants as they or the major part of them shall think necessary for executing the business of the said Corporation, and shall allow them such compensation for their respective services as to them shall appear reasonable and proper; all which together with the expenses of buildings, house rent, and all other contingencies shall be defrayed out of the funds of the Corporation; and the said directors shall likewise exercise such other powers and authorities for the well regulating the affairs of the said Corporation, as shall be prescribed by the bye laws and regulations of the same.

Directors to appoint officers,
clerks &c.

VII. And be it enacted, That not less than five directors shall constitute a board for the transaction of business, of which the president shall always be one, except in the case of sickness or necessary absence, in which case the directors present may choose one of their board as chairman in his stead; that the president shall vote at the board as a director, and in case of there being an equal number of votes for and against any question before them the president shall have a casting vote: Provided always, that no note or bill offered for discount at the said Bank shall be refused or excluded by a single vote.

Board of Directors for business.

No vote to be
excluded by one

VIII. And be it enacted, That no director shall be entitled to any salary or emolument for his services, but that the stockholders and members of the said Corporation may make such compensation to the president as to them shall appear reasonable and proper.

No Director to have a salary.

Compensation
to President.

IX. And be it enacted, That no person shall be eligible as a director unless such person is a stockholder and holding not less than ten shares of the capital stock of the said Corporation: Provided always, that the stockholder so otherwise qualified be not a director in any other banking company in this Province.

Qualification of Directors.

X. And be it enacted, That every cashier and clerk of the said Corporation before he enters upon the duties of his office shall give bonds with two or more sureties to be approved of by the directors, (that is to say), every cashier in a sum not less than ten thousand pounds with a condition for his good and faithful behaviour, and every clerk with the like condition and sureties in such sum as the directors shall deem adequate to the trusts reposed in them.

Cashiers and Clerks to give security.

XI. And be it enacted, That the number of votes which each stockholder shall be entitled to on every occasion, when in conformity to the provisions of this Act the votes of the stockholders are to be given, shall be in the following proportion, (that is to say), for one share and not more than two, one vote; for every two shares above two and not exceeding ten, one vote, making five votes to ten shares; for every four shares above ten and not exceeding thirty, one vote, making ten votes for thirty shares; which said number of ten votes shall be the greatest that any stockholder shall be entitled to have.

Votes of Stockholders regulated.

XII. And be it enacted, That all stockholders resident within this Province or elsewhere may vote by proxy, provided that such proxy be a stockholder and do

do produce sufficient authority in writing from his constituent or constituents so to act ; provided that no stockholder be entitled to hold more than five proxies.

Number of shares to be held by stockholders.

XIII. And be it enacted, That no member of the said Corporation during the first three months, to be accounted from and after the passing of this Act, shall be entitled to hold and subscribe for more than twenty shares of the said capital stock, and if the whole of the capital stock shall not have been subscribed within the said three months, to be accounted as aforesaid, that then and in such case it shall be lawful for any stockholder or stockholders to increase his, her or their subscriptions to forty shares: Provided always, that no stockholder shall be permitted to hold more than fifty shares in the whole unless the same be acquired by purchase after the said Bank shall have commenced its operations; and provided also, that no stockholder in the said Bank at any one time shall hold more than twenty per cent. of the capital stock.

Mode of filling up vacant Directorships.

XIV. And be it enacted, That the directors be and they are hereby authorised to fill up any vacancy that shall be occasioned in the board by the death, resignation or absence from the Province for three months of any of its members, but that in the case of the removal of a director by the stockholders for misconduct or mal-administration, his place shall be filled up by the said stockholders, and the person so chosen by the directors or stockholders shall serve until the next succeeding annual meeting of the stockholders.

Notice to stockholders of payments being required.

XV. And be it enacted, That before any stockholder shall be required to make payment of any instalment upon the amount of his subscription, fifty days previous notice shall be given by the directors in two of the newspapers published in this Province of the time and place of such payment, and the directors shall commence with the business and operations of the Bank of the said Corporation: Provided always, that no bank bill or bank notes shall be issued or put in circulation, nor any bill or note be discounted at the said Bank until the said sum of fifty thousand pounds shall be actually paid in and received on account of the subscriptions to the capital stock of the said Bank.

Banking operations not to be commenced till £50,000 are paid in.

Commissioners to be appointed by the Lieutenant Governor to count the money in the vaults &c.

XVI. And be it enacted, That so soon as the sum of fifty thousand pounds shall have been paid in current gold and silver coins, and shall then be in the vaults of the said Bank, the president shall give notice thereof to the Secretary of the Province for the information of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor or the Commander in Chief for the time being, who is hereby authorised, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Executive Council, to appoint three Commissioners not being stockholders, whose duty it shall be to examine and count the money actually in the vaults, and to ascertain by the oaths of the majority of directors that half the amount of its capital hath been paid in by the stockholders towards payment of their respective shares and not for any other purpose, and that it is intended to have it there remain as part of the capital stock of the said Bank, which investigation is hereby declared indispensable, and shall be made at the periods prescribed by the second section of this Act when paying in the capital stock of the said Bank.

Shares to be assignable.

XVII. And be it enacted, That the shares or capital stock shall be assignable and transferable according to the rules and regulations that may be established in that behalf, but no assignment or transfer shall be valid or effectual unless such assignment or transfer shall be entered and registered in a book to be kept by the directors for that purpose, nor until such person or persons so making the same shall previously discharge all debts actually due and payable to the said Corporation, that in no case shall any fractional part of a share or other than a complete share or shares be assignable or transferable, that whenever any stockholder stockholder shall transfer in manner aforesaid all his stock or shares in the said Bank to any other person or persons whatever, such stockholder shall cease to be a member of the said Corporation.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That the said Company shall not directly or indirectly deal in any thing excepting bills of exchange, gold or silver bullion, or in the sale of goods really and truly pledged for money lent and not redeemed in due time, or in the sale of stock pledged for money lent and not so redeemed, which said goods and stock so pledged shall be sold by the said Corporation at public sale at any time not less than thirty days after the period for redemption, and if upon such sale of goods or stock there shall be a surplus after deducting the money lent together with the expenses of sale, such surplus shall be paid to the proprietors thereof respectively.

Corporation to deal in Bills of Exchange, gold and silver or in sale of goods or stock pledged.

XIX. And be it enacted, That the holders of the stock of the said Bank shall be chargeable in their private and individual capacity and shall be holden for the payment and redemption of all bills which may have been issued by the said Corporation, and also for the payment of all debts at any time due from the said Corporation in proportion to the stock they respectively hold: Provided however, that in no case shall any one stockholder be liable to pay a sum exceeding the amount of stock actually then held by him: Provided nevertheless, that nothing previously contained shall be construed to exempt the joint stock of the said Corporation from being also liable for and chargeable with the debts and engagements of the same.

Liability of stockholders in their private capacity.

XX. And be it enacted, That every bond, bank bill, or bank note or other instrument, by the terms or effects of which the said Corporation may be charged or held liable for the payment of money, shall specially declare in such form as the board of directors shall prescribe that payment shall be made out of the joint funds of the said Corporation: Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to alter, change or diminish the responsibilities and liabilities imposed on stockholders in their individual capacities by the nineteenth section of this Act.

Bonds, Bills, Notes &c. to declare payment to be from the joint funds of the Corporation.

XXI. And be it enacted, That the total amount of the debts which the said Corporation shall at any time owe, whether by bond, bill or note, or other contract whatsoever, deposits excepted, shall not exceed twice the amount of the capital stock actually paid in by the stockholders, and in case of any excess, the directors under whose administration and management the same shall happen, shall be liable for such excess in their individual and private capacities; Provided always, that the lands, tenements, goods and chattels of the said Corporation shall also be liable for such excess.

Debts not to exceed twice the amount of capital paid in.

XXII. And be it enacted, That the directors shall make half yearly dividends of all the profits, rents, premiums and interest of the said Corporation, payable at such time and place as the directors shall appoint, of which they shall give thirty days previous notice in two of the newspapers published in this Province.

Directors to make half yearly dividends.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That the books, papers, correspondence and funds of the said Corporation shall at all times be subject to the inspection of the directors, but no stockholder not a director shall inspect the account of any individual with the said Corporation.

Books &c. to be subject to the inspection of the Directors.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That all the bills or notes issued by the said Corporation shall be signed by the president for the time being, and countersigned and attested by the cashier, and shall be printed and made in steel plates; and all bills or notes so signed and countersigned shall be binding on the said Corporation, and payable in specie at the said Bank.

Bills or Notes to be signed by the President and Cashier.

Corporation to pay to bona fide holder the original amount of any altered note.

XXV. And be it enacted, That the said Corporation shall be liable to pay to any bona fide holder the original amount of any note of the said Bank which shall have been counterfeited or altered in course of its circulation to a larger amount, notwithstanding such alteration.

No action to be had on any bank bill until after presentation at the Bank.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That no action shall be brought or maintained upon any bank bill or bank note which shall hereafter be issued by the said Corporation, before such bill or note shall have been presented at the Bank for payment and default in payment shall thereupon take place.

Bank to be kept at Saint John.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That the said Bank shall be kept and established at Saint John, or at such other place as the board of directors may think it necessary to remove the said Bank on account of any great emergency for the security thereof.

No loan on pledge of stock.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That no loan be made by the said Bank on the pledge of its own stock, and that the aggregate of all the debts due to the said Bank from the directors thereof, as principals, endorsers or sureties, shall not at any one time exceed thirty three and one third per centum of the capital stock.

Debts of Directors to Bank.

Statement of affairs to be laid before the stockholders at the annual general meeting.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That the directors shall at the general meeting to be held on the first Tuesday in May in every year lay before the stockholders for their information an exact and particular statement of the amount of debts due to and by the said Corporation, the amount of bank notes then in circulation, the amount of the gold and silver on hand, and the amount of such debts as are in their opinion bad or doubtful, also the surplus or profits (if any) remaining after deduction of losses and provisions for dividends, which statements shall be signed by the directors and attested by the cashier, and a duplicate statement so signed and attested shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Province, for the information of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, and the Legislature: Provided always, that the rendering of such statement shall not extend to give any right to the stockholders not being directors to inspect the account of any individual or individuals with the said Corporation.

Duplicate for Lieutenant Governor and Legislature.

Joint committee of council and assembly to have access to the books and vaults.

XXX. And be it enacted, That any joint committee hereafter to be appointed by the Honorable the Legislative Council and the House of Assembly, for the purpose of examining into the proceedings of the said Corporation, shall either during the Session or prorogation of the General Assembly, have full access to the accounts, books and vaults of the same.

Stockholders or directors may call general meetings.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That any number of stockholders, not less than twelve, who together shall be proprietors of five hundred shares, shall have power at any time by themselves or their proxies to call a general meeting of the stockholders for purposes relating to the business of the said Corporation, giving at least thirty days previous notice in two of the newspapers published in the Province, and specifying in such notice the time and place of such meeting, with the objects thereof; and the directors or any five of them shall have the like power at any time upon observing the like formalities to call a general meeting as aforesaid.

On dissolution of Corporation Directors to close the concerns.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That on any dissolution of the said Corporation, immediate and effectual measures shall be taken by the directors then in office for closing all the concerns of the said Corporation, and for dividing the capital and profits which may remain among the stockholders in proportion to their respective interests; and in case any bills issued by the said Corporation shall remain unpaid the holders of stock in said Corporation as well as those who were stockholders at the time of the notice of said dissolution (which said notice shall
