

Justices may extend the January and July Terms to the next succeeding week.

Causes may be then determined.

No trials to be had at adjourned Sittings.

Tests and Return days to remain in the Terms as formerly.

No process to abate by reason of the alteration.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace and Inferior Court of Common Pleas in the said County, at the Terms so to be holden on the second Tuesday in January and the second Tuesday in July in each and every year, or either of them, if the Justices of the said Courts respectively shall deem the same expedient, to adjourn the Sittings of the said Courts or either of them, to the week next succeeding the said Terms respectively; and that all causes and matters heard and determined on any day during the week next succeeding the said Terms respectively, pursuant to such adjournment, shall have the same and the like force and effect to all intents and purposes as if such causes and matters had been heard and determined at any time during the said Terms respectively, and that all parties concerned shall take due notice of such adjournment from time to time respectively and govern themselves accordingly; provided that no trial of any issues by Jury shall be had at any such adjourned Sittings, any thing herein contained notwithstanding.

IV. Provided also and be it further enacted, That the days of the teste and return of all writs in the said Courts shall be and remain in each respective term as heretofore accustomed and established, any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

V. And be it further enacted, That no process shall abate or other business of what nature or kind soever be discontinued by reason of the said alterations of the said Terms, but shall and may be proceeded upon, heard and determined at the times herein appointed, in the same manner as they might have been proceeded upon had no alteration been made. Provided always, and be it enacted, that this Act shall not go into operation or be in force until after the last day of the next Court of General Sessions and Inferior Court of Common Pleas to be holden for the County of Northumberland on the third Tuesday in March next, any thing in this Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.
