CAP. XCLV.

An Act to explain and amend the Act to afford relief to persons unfortunate in business in certain cases.

Passed 14th April 1845.

I. BE it enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council and Assembly, That nothing in the seventh section of an Act made and passed in the seventh year of the Reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled An Act to afford relief to persons unfortunate in business in certain cases, shall extend or be construed to extend to make void the arrest of any person or persons for debt, until after the publication of the Notice mentioned in the said section.

Nothing in 7. V. c. 32, s. 7, to make void an arrest until after publication of Notice.

II. And be it enacted, That no composition Deed, Agreement, or other written Discharge, made or to be made under the authority of the said Act, between any Debtor or Debtors and his and their Creditor or Creditors, shall extend or be construed to extend to or affect any security upon any real or personal property bonâ fide given or entered into by any Debtor or Debtors, prior to the publication of the first Notice required to be published under the provisions of the said Act, for the securing the payment of any debt or sum of money by him or them due and owing, before the entering into any such composition Deed or Discharge made under the provisions of the said Act, any thing in the said Act contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

No composition Deed to affect any security given bonâ fide previous to the publication of Notice required by 7 V. c. 32.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the Peace mentioned in the said Act shall be and is hereby authorized to withhold the transmission of the papers taken on the examination before him to the Master of the Rolls, until all the Fees due and payable to him on such examination shall be first paid.

Transmission of papers may be withheld until Fees be paid.
