CAP. LXVI.

An Act to alter and amend an Act for the more efficient inspection of Flour and Meal.

Passed 14th April 1846.

6 WHEREAS in and by the fourth section of an Act made and passed in the eighth year of Her present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to provide for the more efficient inspection of Flour and Meal, it is enacted that all Flour or Meal in virtue of that section shall be branded with a branding or marking Iron: And whereas such branding and marking is found to be inconvenient, and also that no provision is made for the filling up, under the direction of the Inspector, any barrels or half barrels of Flour and Meal that may be found deficient in weight, but that the same are liable to seizure; for remedy whereof Preamble.

8 V. c. 77.

I. Be it enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council and Assembly, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Inspector or any of his Deputies, to allow all barrels or half barrels of Flour and Meal so found to be deficient, to be filled up with the like quality of Flour and Meal, to the weight mentioned in the third section of the Act to which this is an amendment.

Inspector to allow barrels of Flour or Meal deficient in weight to be filled up.

II. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful, at the discretion of the Inspectors or their Deputies, to use, (instead of a branding or marking Iron,) black or red paint for such marking as is described in the fourth section of the above recited Act.

Black or red paint may be used for marking.
