CAP. LXVI.

An Act to prevent injuries on Lands in the vicinity of the River Saint John, by persons conveying Timber, Logs or Lumber down the same.

Passed 14th April 1847.

HEREAS the managers or conductors of Rafts of Timber, Logs and Preamble. 'Lumber down the River Saint John, do, by securing the said Rafts of Timber, Logs and Lumber by anchors, warps, or otherwise, to the banks or

'low lands on the sides of the said River, either by anchors, warps, or otherwise,

'said Rafts cause much damage to improved lands: And whereas it is considered 'just that the owners, managers or conductors of such Timber, Logs or Lumber, or some or one of them, should be held liable for such damage;

I. Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council owners, &c. of rafts of Timber, &c. of rafts of Timber, &c. of made liable for the low lands or meadows, the owner or owners, managers or conductors of the damages by an choring on low Rafts of Timber, Logs or Lumber, or some or either of them, shall be liable for lands or meadows. all such damage so wantonly or wilfully done or committed.

II. And be it enacted, That proof of the damage sustained, and of ownership and of ownership in the Timber, Logs or Lumber, or of the identity of the managers or conductors to be prima facie evidence in any action for such damage, to evidence. enable any person or persons sustaining the said damage, to recover the same; and such action may be prosecuted in the form of an action of Trespass, or on the An action of treecase, at the election of the party aggrieved, in any Court of Law in this Province, pass, oron the ease, and where the damage claimed may not exceed the sum of five pounds, before and when for less than £5, may be any one Justice of the Peace in any County in this Province, under the provisions than £5, may be tried before a Justice of the Peace in the P of the Acts of Assembly relating to Civil Suits before Justices of the Peace; and in &c. case the damages and costs so recovered be not forthwith paid, when the cause is tried before one Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, then, that the offender or offenders shall be liable to be imprisoned under execution, for one day for every two shillings of the said damages and costs; provided always, that no person shall be liable to a longer period of imprisonment under this Act than fifty days.

III. And be it enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in force until the Limitation. first day of May which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

CAP. LXVII.

An Act to alter part of the Great Road of Communication leading from Newcastle to Bathurst. Passed 14th April 1847.

THEREAS that part of the Great Road of Communication leading from Preamble. 'Newcastle to Bathurst, lying between Big Bartibogue River and

'Dixon's Ferry, is inconvenient, and, at certain seasons of the year, dangerous, and

' an alteration therein would shorten the distance, and render it more convenient

' for travellers:'

Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council and That part of the Assembly, That that part of the Great Road of Communication from Newcastle Great Road from Newcastle to to Bathurst, lying between the Big Bartibogue River and Dixon's Ferry, shall Bathurst which lies between Dixon's commence at the Bridge over the said Bartibogue River, at the late John Curry's, Ferry and the Bartibogue River, altered and shall run in a south westerly direction till it strikes Russell's meadows, (so as herein described. called) on the Little Bartibogue River, below the Forks; thence, on a line as straight as practicable, till it strikes the Road leading from Dixon's Ferry to the second tier of Lots, near the present Great Road; and that the said line of Road, when laid out, shall and the same is hereby declared to be part of the said Great Road.