

CAP. LXXV.

An Act to incorporate the New Brunswick Railway Company.

Passed 14th April 1846.

WHEREAS the construction of a Railway from the City of Saint John, through Fredericton and Woodstock, to the Grand Falls of the River Saint John, and from thence to the Boundary Line of the Province of Canada, would be of great public utility, and it is deemed advisable to grant encouragement to such enterprising persons as may be desirous and willing, at their own costs and charges, to make and maintain a Railway in the direction aforesaid, by granting to them an Act of Incorporation, with power of establishing Branches to any part of the Province, as also of plying Steam Vessels on any part of the River Saint John or its Branches, and on such of the Lakes in this Province, as also in the Bay of Fundy, as the Company may deem desirable ;

Preamble.

I. Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council and Assembly, That the Honorable John Saunders, the Honorable John Robertson, the Honorable George Shore, the Honorable Robert L. Hazen, the Honorable Thomas Baillie, the Honorable Lemuel A. Wilmot, William H. Street, John Duncan, Alfred Smithers, Leveret H. DeVeber, John Wishart, James Kirk, Edward L. Jarvis, Edward Allison, John V. Thurgar, William Wright, John Ambrose Street, Charles Fisher, James Taylor, William J. Bedell, Benjamin Wolhaupter, Spafford Barker, Thomas Pickard, Charles M'Pherson, Jeremiah M. Connell, Charles Perley, Richard English, Charles Connell, William Carvill, James Poyntz, Isaac Woodward, Thomas Gilbert, John R. Partelow, and Alfred L. Street, Esquires, and such other persons as shall from time to time become proprietors of shares in the Company hereby established, their successors and assigns, shall be and they are hereby declared, ordained and constituted to be a Corporation, Body Politic and Corporate, by the name of The New Brunswick Railway Company, and shall by that name have perpetual succession, and a Common Seal; and shall and may by the said name sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, answer and be answered unto, defend and be defended, in all Courts and places whatsoever; and shall also have power and authority to purchase, hold and enjoy lands, tenements and hereditaments, for them and their successors and assigns, for making the said Railway, and for settlers on the line of the said Railway, and generally for the purposes of carrying the provisions of this Act into effect; and also, that they, the said Company, shall from time to time, and at all times, have full power and authority to constitute, make, ordain, and establish such bye laws, regulations and ordinances as may be deemed necessary for the good rule and government of the said Company, provided that such bye laws, regulations and ordinances as may be deemed necessary, be not contradictory or repugnant to the Laws of this Province.

Company incorporated by the name of The New Brunswick Railway Company.

Power to sue and be sued;

hold lands, and make bye laws.

II. And be it enacted, That the Capital Stock of the Company hereby established, shall be one million five hundred thousand pounds, to be paid in current money of this Province; the whole amount of the said Capital Stock to be divided into sixty thousand shares of twenty five pounds each; which shares shall be vested in the persons hereinbefore named, and such other persons as may take shares in the said Company, their successors or assigns; and upon taking such shares, they shall deposit in the British North American Bank in England, or any of its Branches in the British North American Colonies, the sum of two pounds ten shillings per share, current money aforesaid; and the remaining amount of such shares shall be called in as the work progresses, in such parts and amount per share as the Directors of the said Company may deem necessary; provided Capital to be £1,500,000, currency, and divided into 60,000 shares of £25 each.

Periods &amp; amounts of payments.

always,

always, that two pounds ten shillings per share shall be the greatest amount per share of any one call which the said Directors may make on the shareholders, and two months at the least shall be the interval between successive calls; and sixty days previous notice of payment being required for any one call shall be given in the London Gazette, the Royal Gazette at Fredericton, and in one or more of the Newspapers published in the City of Saint John; and on demand of the holder of any share, the Company shall cause a certificate of the proprietorship of such share to be delivered to such shareholder, and the same may be according to the Form in the Schedule A to this Act annexed, or to the like effect; and every of the said shares shall be deemed personal estate, and transferable as such, and shall not be deemed or taken to be of the nature of real property; and every such share shall entitle the holder thereof to a proportionate part of the profits and dividends of the said Company; provided also, that the money so to be raised as aforesaid, shall be laid out in the making, completing, and maintaining the said Railway, and other the purposes therewith connected, mentioned in this Act, and in payment of the legal and other expenses incurred in and about the incorporating and establishing the said Company, and to no other use or purpose whatsoever.

Shares to be personal estate.

Interest may be paid previous to the Railway being completed.

Proviso for shares in arrear.

Evidence of property in shares.

No shares to be transferred while in arrear.

Company not bound to see to the execution of trusts in respect of shares.

Subscribers to the stock and their representatives to pay as appointed by the Directors.

III. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Directors of the said Company, until the said Railway shall be completed and opened to the public, to pay interest at any rate not exceeding four pounds per centum per annum, on all sums called up in respect of the shares, from the respective days on which the same shall be paid, such interest to accrue and be paid at such times and places as the said Directors shall appoint for that purpose; provided always, that no interest shall accrue to the proprietor of any share upon which any call shall be in arrear in respect of such shares or any other share to be holden by the same proprietor during the period while such call shall remain unpaid.

IV. And be it enacted, That the certificate of the proprietorship of any share in the said Company shall be admitted in all Courts as prima facie evidence of the title of any shareholder, his executors, administrators, successors, or assigns, to the share therein specified; nevertheless the want of such certificate shall not prevent the holder of any share from disposing thereof.

V. And be it enacted, That no shareholder shall be entitled to transfer any share after any call shall have been made in respect thereof, until he or she shall have paid all calls for the time being due on every share held by him or her.

VI. And be it enacted, That the said Company shall not be bound to see to the execution of any trust, whether express, implied, or constructive, to which any of the said shares may be subject; and the receipt of the party in whose name any such share shall stand in the Books of the said Company, or if it stands in the name of more parties than one, the receipt of one of the parties named in the Register of Shareholders, shall from time to time be a sufficient discharge to the said Company for any dividend or other sum of money payable in respect of such share, notwithstanding any trusts to which such share may then be subject, and whether or not the said Company have had notice of such trusts; and the said Company shall not be bound to see to the application of the money paid upon such receipt.

VII. And be it enacted, That the several persons who have or shall hereafter subscribe any money towards the said undertaking, or their legal representatives respectively, shall pay the sums respectively so subscribed, or such portions thereof as shall from time to time be called for by the Directors of the said Company, at such times and places as shall be appointed by the said Directors; and with with respect to the provisions in this Act contained for enforcing the payment of calls, the word "Shareholder," shall extend to and include the personal representatives of such shareholder.

Term "Shareholders" to include representatives.

VIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Directors of the said Company, from time to time, to make such calls of money upon the respective shareholders, in respect of the amount of capital respectively subscribed or owing by them, as they shall deem necessary, provided that sixty days notice at the least be given of each call as aforesaid, and that no call exceed the prescribed amount aforesaid, and that successive calls be not made at less than the prescribed interval aforesaid; and every shareholder shall be liable to pay the amount of the call so made, in respect of the shares held by him, to the persons and at the times and places from time to time appointed by the said Company, or the Directors thereof.

Power to make calls upon the shareholders for money, and compel payment.

IX. And be it enacted, That if before or on the day appointed for payment, any shareholder do not pay the amount of any call to which he is liable, then such shareholder shall be liable to pay interest for the same, at the rate allowed by law, from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment.

Interest to be paid on over-due instalments.

X. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Company, if they think fit, to receive from any of the shareholders willing to advance the same, all or any part of the monies due upon their respective shares beyond the sums actually called for; and upon the principal monies so paid in advance, or so much thereof as from time to time shall exceed the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which such advance shall be made, the Company may pay interest at such rate not exceeding the legal rate of interest for the time being as the shareholder paying such sum in advance and the said Company may agree upon.

Power to receive advances from shareholders on interest.

XI. And be it enacted, That if at the time appointed by the said Company, or the Directors thereof, for the payment of any call, any shareholder fail to pay the amount of such call, it shall be lawful for the said Company to sue such shareholder for the amount thereof in any Court of Law or Equity having competent jurisdiction, and to recover the same, with lawful interest from the day on which such call was payable.

Power to sue defaulting shareholders.

XII. And be it enacted, That in any action or suit to be brought by the said Company against any shareholder to recover any money due for any call, it shall not be necessary to set forth the special matter, but it shall be sufficient for the said Company to declare that the defendant is the holder of one share or more in the said Company, (stating the number of shares) and is indebted to the said Company in the sum of money to which the calls in arrear shall amount, in respect of one call or more upon one share or more, (stating the number and amount of each of such calls) whereby an action hath accrued to the said Company by virtue of this Act.

Declaration in suits to recover money due on calls.

XIII. And be it enacted, That on the trial or hearing of such action or suit, it shall be sufficient to prove that the defendant, at the time of making such call, was a holder of one share or more in the said undertaking, and that such call was in fact made, and such notice thereof given, as is directed by this Act; and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made such call, nor any other matter whatsoever; and thereupon the said Company shall be entitled to recover what shall be due upon such call, and interest thereon, unless it shall appear either that any such call exceeds the prescribed amount aforesaid, or that due notice of such call was not given, or that the prescribed interval between two successive calls had not elapsed as aforesaid.

Proof of call and of Defendant having been a stockholder at the time, sufficient.

register of Shareholders to be prima facie evidence.

XIV. And be it enacted, That the production of the Register of Shareholders shall be prima facie evidence of such defendant being a shareholder, and of the number and amount of his shares.

Shares in arrear may be declared forfeited.

XV. And be it enacted, That if any shareholder fail to pay any call payable by him, together with the interest, if any, that shall have accrued thereon, the Directors of the said Company, at any time after the expiration of two months from the day appointed for payment of such call, may declare the share, in respect of which such call was payable, forfeited, and that whether the said Company have sued for the amount of such call or not.

Notice to be given of intention to declare shares forfeited.

XVI. And be it enacted, That before declaring any share forfeited, the Directors of the said Company shall cause notice of such intention to be left or transmitted by the post to the usual or last place of abode of the person appearing by the Register of Shareholders to be the proprietor of such share; and if the holder of any such share be beyond the limits of this Province, or if his usual or last place of abode be not known to the said Directors, by reason of its being imperfectly described in the Shareholders' Address Book, or otherwise; or if the interest in any share shall be known by the said Directors to have become transmitted otherwise than by transfer, and so the address of the parties to whom the said share or shares may for the time being belong shall not be known to the said Directors, the said Directors shall give public notice of such intention in the London Gazette, the Royal Gazette at Fredericton, and also in one or more of the Newspapers published in the City of Saint John; and the several notices aforesaid shall be given twenty one days at least before the said Directors shall make such declaration of forfeiture.

Forfeiture of shares to be confirmed at a general meeting of the Company.

XVII. And be it enacted, That the said declaration of forfeiture shall not take effect so as to authorize the sale or other disposition of any share until such declaration shall have been confirmed at the next general meeting of the said Company to be held after such notice of intention to make such declaration of forfeiture shall have been given, and it shall be lawful for the said Company to confirm such forfeiture at any such meeting, and by an order at such meeting, or at any subsequent general meeting, to direct the share or shares so forfeited to be sold or otherwise disposed of.

Forfeited shares may be sold.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That after such confirmation as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Directors to sell the forfeited share by public auction, and if there be more than one forfeited share, then either separately or together, as to them shall seem fit; and any shareholder may purchase any forfeited share so sold as aforesaid.

Evidence of proprietorship in purchased shares.

XIX. And be it enacted, That an affidavit by some credible person not interested in the matter, sworn before any Justice, or before any Commissioner for taking affidavits in the Supreme Court, that the call in respect of a share was made, and notice thereof given, and that default in payment of the call was made, and that the forfeiture of the share was declared and confirmed in manner hereinbefore required, shall be sufficient evidence of the facts therein stated; and such affidavit, and the receipt of the Treasurer of the said Company for the price of such share, shall constitute a good title to such share; and a certificate of proprietorship shall be delivered to such purchaser, and thereupon he shall be deemed the holder of such share, discharged from all calls due prior to such purchase, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to such share be affected by any irregularity in the proceedings in reference to such sale.

XX. And be it enacted, That the said Company shall not sell or transfer more of the shares of any such defaulter than will be sufficient, as nearly as can be ascertained at the time of such sale, to pay the arrears then due from such defaulter on account of any calls, together with interest and the expenses attending such sale and declaration of forfeiture; and if the money produced by the sale of any such forfeited shares be more than sufficient to pay all arrears of calls and interest thereon due at the time of such sale, and the expenses attending the declaration of forfeiture and sale thereof, with the proof thereof, and certificate of proprietorship to the purchaser, the surplus shall, on demand, be paid to the defaulter.

No more shares to be sold than are sufficient to pay off arrears and expenses.

XXI. And be it enacted, That if payment of such arrears of calls, and interest and expenses, be made before any share or shares so forfeited and vested in the said Company shall have been sold by public auction as aforesaid, such share or shares shall revert to the party or parties to whom the same belonged before such forfeiture, in such manner as if such calls had been duly paid.

On payment of arrears before sale, share to revert to the party.

XXII. And be it enacted, That so soon as three hundred thousand pounds of the Capital Stock of the said Company shall have been subscribed, and the deposit of two pounds ten shillings per share shall have been actually paid as aforesaid, and not before, it shall be lawful for the said Company, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, by themselves, their deputies, agents, officers, and workmen, to make, construct, and finally complete, alter, and keep in repair, a Railway, with one or more sets of rails or tracks, with all suitable bridges, archways, tunnels, viaducts, turn-outs, culverts, drains, and all other necessary appendages, and to erect such wharves, buildings, warehouses, and stores, on the line of the said Railway, and to purchase and acquire such stationary or locomotive Steam Engines, and carriages, wagons, and other machinery and contrivances, and real or personal property, as may be necessary for the making and maintaining the said Railway, and for the transport of passengers and merchandize thereon, and for other purposes of this Act, and may hold and possess the land over which the said Railway is to pass, and such adjoining lands as may be required; which Railway is to run from some point or place in or contiguous to the City of Saint John, and from thence to the Boundary Line of the Province of Canada, or until it comes in connexion with a Railway to be constructed from Quebec to such Boundary Line; the said Railway from the City of Saint John to be made and constructed to pass through Fredericton, thence to Woodstock, and from thence to the Grand Falls of the River Saint John, on such route as the Directors of said Company, in the exercise of their best judgment and discretion, shall deem most favorable and best calculated to promote the public convenience; provided always, that it shall be in the discretion of the Directors of the said Company to determine at which of the aforesaid stations of Saint John, Fredericton, Woodstock, and the Grand Falls, the work of making the said Railway shall commence, and in what direction on the aforementioned route, the same shall be extended from the place of commencement; provided also, that a map or plan of the route determined upon shall be deposited in the Office of the Secretary of this Province.

On subscription of £300,000, and deposit of 10 per cent. Company authorized to construct and maintain a Rail Road from St. John to the Boundary line of the Province of Canada.

Proviso as to point of commencement.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That the said Company shall be and are hereby invested with all the powers, privileges and immunities which are or may be necessary to carry into effect the intentions and objects of this Act; and for this purpose the said Company, their successors, deputies, agents and assistants, shall have the right to enter and go into and upon the lands and grounds of all and every description lying in the said route and general direction as aforesaid, for Company invested with all necessary powers.

Power to enter on lands to make surveys,

the purpose of making surveys, examinations, or other necessary arrangements for fixing the site of the said Railway; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Company, and their successors, to take and hold so much of the land and other real estate as may be necessary for the laying out, making and constructing, and convenient operation of the said Railway, and shall also have the right to take, remove, and use, for the necessary construction and repair of said Railway and appurtenances, any earth, gravel, stone, timber, or other materials, on or from the land so taken, without any previous agreement with the owner or owners, tenant or tenants, of the land, and upon which such surveys, examinations, or other arrangements, may be made, or through which the said Railway may be explored, laid out, worked, made and constructed, or on which materials and other things shall be laid for the purposes of the said Railway; provided always, that the said land so taken shall not exceed six rods in width, except where greater width is necessary for the purpose of excavation or embankment; and where the said Railway shall pass through any wood lands or forests, the said Company shall have the right to fell or remove any trees standing thereon to the distance of four rods from either side of the said Railway, which by their liabilities to be blown down, or from their natural falling, might obstruct or impair said Railway; provided always, that in all cases the said Company shall pay for such lands or estate so taken and used, (in case the owner thereof demand it,) such price as the said Company and the owner or respective owners thereof may mutually agree on; and in case the said parties should not agree, then it shall be lawful for the said Company to apply to two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace in the County wherein the said lands may be situate, for a Warrant, which Warrant shall be in the form set forth in the Schedule B to this Act annexed, and shall be directed to the High Sheriff, his Deputy, or any Constable within the said County, commanding such High Sheriff, Deputy, or Constable, to summon a Jury of five disinterested freeholders or occupiers of land in the said County, who shall be sworn to examine the site of the said Railway; and in case the said Railway shall pass through or extend upon any improved lands, or shall occasion the removal of any buildings or fences, then and in all such cases, the damages shall be ascertained and assessed by such Jury; provided nevertheless, that the said Jury, in assessing the said damages, are authorized and empowered, and shall take into consideration the enhancement in value of the land by the passage of the Railway, in regard to the increased facilities of access to the different stations and termini of the said Railway, in diminution of the damages; and in all cases where the Jury shall assess damages to be paid to the owner or owners of any land over which the said Railway may be laid out, the Justices who issued the Warrant shall lay the said assessments before the next annual meeting of the said Company, under the authority of this Act, who are hereby required to pay the amount set forth in the said assessment, into the hands of the persons for whom such damages may have been assessed, within twenty one days next after such annual meeting of the said Company, together with the costs and charges of assessing such damages, which shall be agreeably to a scale in Schedule C of this Act; and in default of such payment, it shall and may be lawful for the said Justices, or either of them, (in case of the death or absence of the other,) at the instance of the said party or parties to whom such damages are payable, by Warrant under the hands and seals of the said Justices, or one of them, (in case aforesaid,) to levy the same, with costs, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the said Company; provided also, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to affect the rights of the Crown in any ungranted lands lands within this Province, or to authorize the said Company to enter upon or take possession of any such land without the previous permission of the Executive Government of the Province.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That when the said Company shall take any land or estate of any body corporate, aggregate or sole, guardians, committees, executors or administrators, or other trustees whatsoever, held for and on behalf of those whom they represent, whether corporations, infants, idiots, lunatics, feme coverts, persons deceased or beyond seas, or other person or persons whatsoever, who are or shall be possessed of or interested in the said land or estate, the respective contracts, agreements and sales of the said corporations, guardians, committees, executors, administrators, or other trustees whatsoever, shall be valid and effectual in law to all intent and purposes whatsoever, and their respective receipts shall be good and valid releases and discharges therefor, and it shall be lawful for them respectively to agree and settle with the said Company for damages, (if any) by reason of taking such land or estate aforesaid, and in case of disagreement, such damage to be ascertained and settled as provided by the twenty third section of this Act.

Agreements with and discharges by Corporations and Trustees for lands taken to be valid.

XXV. And be it enacted, That the said Company, their superintendents, engineers, agents, and workmen, may enter upon the land adjoining the said Railway, and from thence take and carry away any timber, stone, gravel, sand and earth, or material necessary for the construction of the said Railway; and in case of any slip happening, or being apprehended to any cutting, embankment, or other work belonging to the said Railway, the said agents and workmen shall at all times hereafter have full egress and regress into and upon such adjoining lands, for the purpose of repairing and preventing such accident, and to do such works as may be necessary for the purpose; provided always, that such works shall be as little injurious to the said adjoining land as the nature of the operations will admit of, and shall be executed with all possible dispatch, in all which cases the damage incurred, if the parties cannot agree, shall be ascertained and paid in like manner in all respects as provided for in the twenty third section of this Act.

Power to enter on lands and take materials for the construction or repair of the Railway.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That the said Company shall and may (if they deem it expedient) make Branch Railways to every or any part of the Province, and manage such Branch Railways, and procure and own such Steam Boats or Vessels as may be necessary to ply in the waters of any part of the River Saint John or its Branches, or on the Lakes contiguous thereto, or in the Bay of Fundy, any or either of them, in connexion with the said Railway, and for that purpose shall exercise and possess all the powers, privileges and authorities necessary for the management of the same, in as full and ample a manner as they are hereby authorized to do with respect to the said Railway.

Power to make Branch Railways and own Steam Boats to ply in connexion with the Railway.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That the said Company, at their own proper costs and charges, shall erect and maintain on each side of the said Railway, sufficient fences wherever the same may be necessary, in order to protect the public, or wherever any cleared or cultivated land occurs on the line of the said Railway; and for neglect or failure to erect and maintain such necessary fences, the said Company shall be liable to be indicted at any Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Sessions for the County where such fences shall be insufficient, and to be fined in such sum as shall be then and there adjudged, and such fine shall be expended for the erection or repair of said fences, and for compensation of individual damage, as the case may be; and it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the said Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Sessions, to make such order for levying the said fine on the property of the said Company, or otherwise, tained across highways.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That whenever the said Railway, or any of its Branches, cross or shall hereafter cross any highways, turnpike road, statute labour or private road, for carriages of any discription within this Province, the said Company shall make and maintain good and sufficient gates across each end of such highway, turnpike or other road, which gates shall be constantly closed, except during the time when horses, cattle, carts or carriages, passing along such turnpike or other road, shall have to cross such Railway; and such gates shall be of such dimensions, and so constructed, as when closed across the ends of such turnpike or other road, to fence in the Railway and prevent cattle or horses passing along the road from entering upon the Railway; provided always, that it shall be lawful (in case it shall be more conducive for the public safety) for the said Company, at their own expense, to carry such turnpike or other road over or under such Railway, by means of a bridge or archway, in lieu of crossing of the same on the level.

Proviso.

Company affairs to be managed by a Board of fifteen Directors.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That the immediate government and management of the affairs of the said Company shall be vested in fifteen Directors, who shall be proprietors of at least twenty shares each, and who shall be chosen by the shareholders of the said Company in the manner hereinafter provided, and shall hold their offices until others shall have been duly elected and qualified to take their places; that not less than five Directors shall constitute a Board for the transaction of business, of which the President shall always be one, except in case of sickness or necessary absence, in which case the Directors present may choose one of their number as Chairman in his stead; that the President shall vote at the Board as a Director, and in case of there being an equal number of votes for and against any question before them, the President shall have the casting vote.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That the said Directors shall have the power of nominating and appointing all and every the Officers and Engineers, and other persons connected with the said Railway, at such salaries or rates of remuneration, as to the said Directors shall seem proper, subject to the bye laws, rules and regulations of the said Company; and the shareholders shall have the power from time to time to alter and amend, or to make such new rules, bye laws and regulations for the good government of the said Company, and of the said Railway, and of the works and property hereinbefore mentioned, and for the well governing of the Engineers, workmen, and other persons employed by the said Company, as to the major part of the said shareholders shall seem meet; which said rules, bye laws and regulations, being put into writing under the Common Seal of the said Company, shall be published in the London Gazette, the Royal Gazette at Fredericton, and also in one or more of the Newspapers published in the City of Saint John, shall be binding upon and observed by all parties, and shall be sufficient in any Court of Law to justify all persons who shall act under the same.

Directors to appoint Officers and Engineers.

Shareholders may amend and make bye laws.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That the said shareholders shall meet annually at the City of Saint John, on the first Tuesday in June in each year; at which meeting, the shareholders present, personally or by proxy, may either continue in office the Directors before appointed, or any number of them, or may elect a new body of Directors to supply the places of those not continued in office; provided always, that the omission to meet shall work no forfeiture, but the shareholders may be afterwards called together for that purpose, by the Directors of the said Company for the time being.

Annual general meeting to be held at St. John on 1st Tuesday in June.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any number of shareholders, holding in the aggregate five hundred shares, by writing under their hands, at any time to require the said Directors to call an extraordinary meeting of the said Company, and such requisition shall fully express the object of the meeting required to be called, and shall be left at the office of the said Company, or given to at least three Directors, or left at their last or usual places of abode; and forthwith upon the receipt of such requisition, the said Directors shall convene a meeting of the shareholders; and if for twenty one days after such notice the Directors fail to call such meeting, the shareholders aforesaid, qualified as aforesaid, aforesaid, may call such meeting by giving sixty days public notice thereof in the Gazettes and Newspapers hereinbefore in this Act mentioned.

Sixty days notice by advertisement to be given of all meetings of the Company.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That sixty days public notice, at the least, of all meetings, whether general or extraordinary, shall be given by advertisement in the Gazettes and Newspapers hereinbefore in this Act mentioned, which shall specify the place, the day and the hour of meeting, and every notice of an extraordinary meeting shall specify the purpose for which the meeting is called.

Toll granted to the Company on transport of passengers and property.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That a toll be and is hereby granted for the sole benefit of the said Company on all passengers and property of all descriptions which may be conveyed or transported upon such Railway, any of its Branches, or in the Steam Boats or Vessels connected therewith, as aforesaid, at such rates per mile as may be established from time to time by the Directors of the said Company; the transportation of persons and property, the construction of cars and carriages, the weight of loads, and all other matters and things in relation to the use of the said Railway and its Branches, shall be in conformity to such rules, regulations and provisions, as the said Directors shall from time to time prescribe and direct; and such Railway and its Branches may be used by any person or persons who may comply with such rules and regulations; provided always, that if, after the completing the said Railway, the rates, tolls or dues that may be established by the said Company under and by virtue of this Act, shall be found excessive, it shall and may be lawful for the Legislature to reduce the said rates, tolls or dues, so as that the same shall not produce to the said Company a greater rate of clear annual profits, divisible upon the subscribed and paid up Capital Stock of the said Company, than fifteen pounds annually for every hundred pounds of such capital; and in order that the true state of the said Company shall be known, it shall be the duty of the President and Directors thereof to file in the Office of the Secretary of this Province, for the information of the Legislature, at the expiration of seven years after the said Railway shall have been completed as aforesaid, a just and true statement and account of the monies by them disbursed and laid out in making and completing the said Railway in manner aforesaid, and also of the amount of tolls and revenues of the said Railway, and of the annual expenditure and disbursements in maintaining and keeping up the same during the said seven years; the said several accounts and statements to be signed by the President and Treasurer of the said Company, and by such President and Treasurer attested to on oath before any one of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for any County in this Province; and provided also, that it shall be the duty of the said President and Directors of the said Company, once in each and every year after the expiration of the said seven years, to file in the said Office of the Secretary of the said Province, for the information of the Legislature, a like statement and account, verified on oath by the President and Treasurer as aforesaid.

Scale of Tolls established by the Company may be revised by the Legislature.

Statement of expenses and receipts to be filed in the Provincial Secretary's Office for the information of the Legislature.

Right of purchasing the Railway and its appurtenances reserved to Her Majesty's Government.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That whatever may be the rate of divisible profits on the said Railway, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Government, if it shall think fit, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, at any time after the expiration of the term of twenty one years, to purchase the said Railway, with all its hereditaments, stock and appurtenances, in the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, upon giving to the said Company three calendar months' notice, in writing, of such intention, and upon payment of a sum equal to twenty five years purchase of the annual divisible profits estimated on the average of the seven then next preceding years; provided that if the average rate of profits for the said seven years shall be less than the rate of fifteen pounds in the hundred, it shall be lawful for the Company, if they should be of opinion that the said rate of twenty five years purchase of the said average profits is an inadequate rate of purchase of such Railway, reference being had to the prospects thereof, to require that it shall be left to arbitration, in case of difference, to determine what (if any) additional amount of purchase money shall be paid to the said Company; provided also, that such option of purchase shall not be exercised, except with the consent of the Company, while any such revised scale of tolls, fares and charges shall be in force.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Postmaster General, or his chief Deputy in this Province, by notice in writing under his hand, or under the hand of such Deputy as aforesaid, delivered to the said Company, to require that the Mails or Post Letter Bags shall from and after the day to be named in such notice, (being not less than twenty eight days from the delivery thereof,) be conveyed and forwarded by the said Company on their Railway, either by the ordinary trains of carriages, or by special trains, as need may be, at such hours or times in the day or night, as the Postmaster General or his said Deputy shall direct, together with the guards appointed and employed by the Postmaster General or his said Deputy, in charge thereof, and any other officers of the Post Office; and thereupon the said Company shall from and after the day to be named in such notice, at their own costs, provide sufficient carriages and engines on the said Railway for the conveyance of such Mails and Post Letter Bags, to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General or his said Deputy, and receive and take up, carry and convey, by such ordinary or special train of carriages, or otherwise, as need may be, all such Mails or Post Letter Bags as shall for that purpose be tendered to them, or any of their officers, servants, or agents, by any officer of the Post Office, and also receive, take up, carry and convey, in and upon the carriage or carriages carrying such Mail or Post Letter Bags, the guards in charge thereof, and any other officer of the Post Office, and shall receive, take up, deliver, and leave such Mails or Post Letter Bags, guards and officers, at such places in the line of such Railway, on such days and such hours or times in the day or night, and subject to all such reasonable regulations and restrictions as to speed of travelling, places, times and durations of stoppages, and times of arrival, as the Postmaster General or his said Deputy, shall in that behalf from time to time order or direct; provided always, that the rate of speed be required shall in no case exceed the maximum rate of speed prescribed by the Directors of the said Company for the conveyance of passengers by their first class train, nor shall the Company be responsible for the safe custody or delivery of any Mail Bags so sent.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That the said Company shall be entitled to such reasonable remuneration to be paid by the Postmaster General or his Deputy, for the conveyance of such Mails, Post Letter Bags, Mail Guards and other officers of the Post Office, in manner required by such Postmaster General, his Deputy, or by such other officer of the Post Office as he shall in that behalf nominate as aforesaid, as shall (either prior to or after the commencement of such service) be fixed and agreed on between the Postmaster General or his Deputy and the said Company; or in case of difference of opinion between them, the same shall be referred to the award of two persons, one to be named by the Postmaster General or his Deputy, and the other by the said Company; and if such two persons cannot agree on the amount of such remuneration or compensation, then to the umpirage of some third person to be appointed by such two first named persons, previously to their entering upon the inquiry; and the said award or umpirage, Mails, Guards, &c. to be forwarded on the Railway under the direction of the Post Master General.

Compensation for carrying the Mails to be fixed by agreement or arbitration.

as the case may be, shall be binding and conclusive on the said parties and their respective successors and assigns.

Nomination of arbitrators and umpires.

XL. And be it enacted, That in all references to be made under the authority of this Act, the Postmaster General, his Deputy, or the said Company, as the case may be, shall nominate his or their arbitrators within fourteen days after notice from the other party, or in default, it shall be lawful for the arbitrator appointed by the party giving notice to name the other arbitrator, and such arbitrators shall proceed forthwith in the reference and make their award therein within twenty eight days after their appointment, or otherwise the matter shall be left to be determined by the umpire, and if such umpire shall refuse or neglect to proceed and make his award for the space of twenty eight days after the matter shall have been referred to him, then a new umpire shall be appointed by the two first named arbitrators, who shall in like manner proceed and make his award within twenty eight days, or in default be superseded, and so toties quoties.

Obligation to transport Troops along the line at contract rates.

XLI. And be it enacted, That whenever it shall be necessary to move any of the Officers or Soldiers of Her Majesty's Forces of the Line, Ordnance Corps, Marines, Militia, or Police Forces; by the said Railway, or any of its Branches, the Directors thereof shall, and are hereby required to permit such Forces respectively, with their Baggage, Stores, Arms, Ammunition, and other necessaries and things, to be conveyed at the usual hours of starting, at such prices or upon such conditions as may from time to time be contracted for, between the Secretary of War, or such officer duly authorized for that purpose, and the said Company, for the conveyance of such Forces, on the production of a route or order for their conveyance, signed by the proper authorities.

Obligation to permit a line of Electrical Telegraph to be laid down by Her Majesty's Government.

XLII. And be it enacted, That the said Company, on being required so to do by Her Majesty's Government, shall be bound to allow any person or persons duly authorized by Her Majesty's Government, with servants and workmen, at all reasonable times to enter into or upon the lands of the said Company, and to establish and lay down upon such lands adjoining the line of the said Railway, or any of its Branches, a line of Electrical Telegraph for Her Majesty's Service, and to give to him and them every reasonable facility for laying down the same, and for using the same for the purpose of receiving and sending messages on Her Majesty's Service, subject to such reasonable remuneration to the Company as may be agreed upon between the Company and Her Majesty's Government; provided always, that subject to a prior right of use thereof for the purposes of Her Majesty, such Telegraph may be used by the Company for the purposes of the Railway, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the parties, or in the event of differences, as may be settled by arbitration.

Yearly dividends of the profits to be made.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That the Directors of the said Company shall make yearly dividend of the tolls, income and profits arising to the said Company, first deducting thereout the annual costs, charges and expenses of the said Company, as well of the repairs of the works belonging to them as for the salaries and allowances of the several officers and servants, and for such other purposes connected with the said Company, as may be deemed proper by the said Directors, consistent with the bye laws, rules and regulations of the said Company.

Receipts of Guardians of Minors and Committees of Lunatics to be good discharges.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That if any money be payable from the said Company to any shareholder or other person being a minor, idiot, or lunatic, the receipt of the guardian of such minor, or the receipt of the Committee of such lunatic, shall be a sufficient discharge to the said Company for the same.

A portion of the profits may be reserved before declaring dividends.

XLV. And be it enacted, That before apportioning the profits to be divided among the shareholders, the said Directors may, if they think fit, set aside thereout such such sum as they may think proper, to meet contingencies, or for enlarging, repairing or improving the works connected with the said Railway or its Branches, or any part of the said undertaking, and may divide the balance only among the shareholders.

XLVI. And be it enacted, That no dividend shall be paid in respect of any share until all calls then due in respect of that and every other share held by the person to whom such dividend may be payable shall have been paid.

No dividends to be paid on shares in arrears.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That the joint stock or property of the said Company shall alone be responsible for the debts and engagements of the said Company, and that no person or persons who shall or may have dealings with the said Company, shall on any pretence whatsoever have recourse against the separate property of any of the individual shareholders of the said Company, or against their person or persons, further than may be necessary for the faithful application of the funds of the said Company; provided also, that no shareholder of the said Company shall be liable for or charged with the payment of any debt or demand due from the said Company beyond the extent of his share in the capital of the said Company not then paid up.

Joint stock to be alone responsible for the Company debts.

XLVIII. And be it enacted, That no suit or action at law or equity shall be brought or prosecuted by any person or persons for any act, matter or thing done under the authority of this Act, unless such suit or action shall be commenced within six months next after the offence shall have been committed, or cause of action accrued, and the defendant or defendants in such suit or action may plead the general issue, and give this Act and the special matter in evidence under the said plea, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the authority of this Act.

Time for bringing actions for anything done under this Act limited.

XLIX. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall wilfully and maliciously, and to the prejudice of the undertaking, break, injure or destroy any of the works to be made by virtue of this Act, every such person or persons shall be judged guilty of felony; and every person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be liable to the punishment prescribed for felony in an Act made and passed in the first year of the Reign of His late Majesty William the Fourth, intituled An Act for improving the administration of Justice in Criminal cases.

Punishment for malicious acts, destroying works, &c.

L. And be it enacted, That if any other Railway Company, incorporated by law, shall build and construct any other Railway from any place or places in this Province, it shall be lawful for the said Railway Company so building and constructing the said other Railway, to form a junction with the main trunk, or any branch thereof, which may be built and constructed by the said New Brunswick Railway Company, at such point or points, place or places as may be desired, or considered most advantageous by such Railway Company; and the said New Brunswick Railway Company shall convey and transport all passengers, goods, chattels and merchandize of every kind so arriving at the said junction, onwards and backwards, at all convenient and usual times, on the said trunk, or any branch thereof, without any unnecessary delay or hinderance, to their respective destination, subject to the payment of such rates, tolls or dues per mile, as may be paid in similar cases to the said New Brunswick Railway Company.

Power to form junctions given to other Railway Companies.

LI. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to exempt the Railway by this Act authorized to be made, from the provisions of any general Act relating to this Act, or of any general Act relating to Railways in this Province, which may hereafter pass during the present or any future Session of the Legislature, or from any future alteration or repeal of this Act, under the authority of the Legislature.

Railway not exempted from the future Acts of the Legislature.

LII.

Railway from the City of Fredericton to the Grand Falls to be completed within ten years or privilege to cease.

LII. And be it enacted, That the said Company, to entitle themselves to the privileges, benefits and advantages to them granted by this Act, shall, and they are hereby required to make and complete the said Railway from the City of Fredericton to the Grand Falls within ten years from the passing of this Act, and if the same shall not be so made and completed within the period before mentioned, so as to be used for the conveyance and carriage of passengers, goods, chattels, wares and merchandize thereon, then this Act, and every matter and thing therein contained, shall cease and be utterly null and void.

Act suspended till Her Majesty's approbation be declared.

LIII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall not come into operation until Her Majesty's Royal approbation be thereunto had and declared.

CAP. LXXVI.

An Act to facilitate the making of a Railway from the City of Saint John, through Fredericton and Woodstock, to the Grand Falls of the River Saint John, and from thence to the Boundary Line of the Province of Canada, by the New Brunswick Railway Company.

Passed 14th April 1846.

WHEREAS a Bill to incorporate the New Brunswick Railway Company Preamble. has been passed by the Legislature of this Province, during its present Session, subject to the Royal sanction: And whereas it is an object of great public importance that a Railway should be established and brought into operation on the line specified in the said Act of Incorporation, and more especially that part of the said line from Fredericton, via Woodstock, to the Grand Falls: And whereas it is deemed expedient to afford every facility and encouragement to the said Company, as an inducement to establish and bring into operation the said Railway, so soon as the same can be accomplished, and in the first place that part of the said line from Fredericton to the Grand Falls, via Woodstock;

I. Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council and Assembly, That His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor or Administrator of the Government for the time being, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Executive Council, is hereby fully authorized and empowered to grant unto the said New Brunswick Railway Company, their successors, deputies, agents, and assistants, full right to enter and go in and upon the ungranted lands and grounds of Her Majesty of all and every description, lying in the said route or line of the said Railway, or of any of its Branches that may be hereafter established, for the purpose of making surveys, examinations, or other necessary arrangements for fixing the site of the said Railway, or any of its Branches, through and upon such ungranted lands of Her Majesty; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Lieutenant Governor or Administrator of the Government for the time being, by and with the advice aforesaid, and he is fully authorized and empowered to grant unto the said Company so much of the Crown Lands aforesaid as may be necessary for the laying out, making and constructing, and convenient operation

Governor in Council authorized to grant the Corporation right of entering upon Crown Lands to make surveys, the fee of Lands necessary for the Railway, and gravel, timber, &c. necessary for its construction.
