

Instruments, until the same be produced for registry at the office of the Register; and on any such Deed or Instrument, duly proved or acknowledged, being so produced, it shall be the duty of such Register, either by himself or some Clerk, in his office, immediately to mark thereon the registry number of such Deed, according to the order in which it was so received.

II. And be it enacted, That so much of the tenth section of the said recited Act as may be construed to require the hour to be mentioned, be and the same is hereby repealed; and that every Certificate of Registry, endorsed on any conveyance or instrument by the Register since the passing of the said recited Act, mentioning the day of such registry, shall be deemed as effectual for all the purposes of the said recited Act as if the hour had also been mentioned therein, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. 'And whereas it is considered expedient to authorize the Register of Deeds, in any County in this Province, to take the proof or acknowledgment of any conveyance or instrument intended for registry in any other County in this Province; Be it therefore enacted, That the proof or acknowledgment of any conveyance or instrument taken before and certified by any Register of Deeds for any County in this Province, may thereupon be registered in the office of Register of Deeds in the County in which the lands, tenements or hereditaments are situate; which registry shall have the like force and effect in all respects the same as if such conveyance or instrument had been proved or acknowledged before and certified by the proper Register of the County in which the same may be so registered, according to the provisions of the said recited Act.

10 V. c. 42, s. 10, in part repealed, and certificate of Register, omitting the hour, deemed sufficient.

Register of Deeds may take acknowledgments of Deeds to be registered in any County.

CAP. XLV.

An Act to amend an Act, intituled An Act to provide for the support and improvement of the Parish Schools.

Passed 14th April 1849.

Preamble.

‘WHEREAS it is deemed advisable to amend the Act, intituled An Act to provide for the support and improvement of Parish Schools;

Licences and Transfers of Licences to be signed by the Secretary of the Board of Education.

I. Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council and Assembly, That from and after the passing of this Act, all Licences to Teachers of Schools, and all Transfers of Licences, when granted, shall be signed by the Secretary of the Board of Education for the time being, by the order and in the name of the said Board, and that such Licences and Transfers need not be signed as heretofore by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor or Administrator of the Government for the time being.

Licences to Females may be granted without requiring them to attend the Training School.

II. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the said Board of Education to grant Licences to Female Teachers in certain cases, without requiring their attendance at the Training School, and that such Female Teachers shall rank as Teachers of the Lower or Elementary Class.

Licences may be granted to Teachers for remote Settlements, without attending the Training School.

III. ‘And whereas it may be advisable to grant Licences to Teachers for remote Settlements who cannot conveniently attend the Training School;’ Be it therefore enacted, That notwithstanding the provisions of the said recited Act, it shall and may be lawful for the said Board of Education to grant Licences of the Lower or Elementary Class to Teachers for remote and poor Settlements, without requiring such Teachers to attend the Training School.

Limitation.

IV. And be it enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in force until the first day of May which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty.
