CAP. II.

An Act to settle certain doubts raised under the last Will and Testament of Mark Varley, late of the City of Saint John, Brick Maker, but now deceased.

Passed 26th April 1850.

WHEREAS Mark Varley, late of the City of Saint John, in the City and County of Saint John, Brick Maker, did on the fourth day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty nine, make and publish his last Will and Testament, whereby, inter alia, he did devise and bequeath in the words or to the effect following, that is to say:—

“I give, devise and bequeath all my share and interest in the vessel called the ‘El-Dorado,’ owned by Michael Thompson and myself, to the Trustees of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in the City of Saint John, for the establishment and maintenance of a Day School: A School House to be built out of the monies arising from my share, but not to exceed in the cost of the erection thereof the sum of two thousand pounds currency, unless such additional cost be raised by contributions from other parties, or by other means: The said School House to be built of brick or stone: The remainder of the moneys arising from my said share in the said vessel to go to the support of the School Establishment, and the payment of the Teachers: The said Establishment and School House to be built and maintained in the City of Saint John. It is my wish, however, that the said vessel shall be run until it suits the said Michael Thompson’s convenience that she be sold: He accounting and paying over to the Trustees of the said School Establishment hereby created, and their successors, the proceeds of my share of the said vessel, as earned, to be by them invested in undoubted security on Lands, or Government Stocks, bearing six per cent. interest, and added to the funds arising from the sale of my said share, when sold. It is my wish, however, that the erection of the School House, and the establishment of the School, should be commenced as soon as sufficient funds are in hand; but until sufficient are in hand, to be invested as aforesaid. And it is also my wish that similar investment should be adopted for all moneys hereby bequeathed by me for the purpose aforesaid, after paying for the erection of the said School House, and the necessary expenses attendant upon carrying out the objects of this bequest.

Recital of the last Will and Testament of Mark Varley.

“My

“ My lot of land and premises in Dock Street, in the City of Saint John, I hereby devise and bequeath to the said Trustees of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and their successors, to and for the School Establishment above created, subject nevertheless to the payment of the rents arising therefrom to my Brother, John Varley, residing in Hull, Yorkshire, England, during his natural life. It is my Will and Testament, that in case there should be any incompetency in the parties hereinbefore named as Trustees, to accept and carry out the trust for the said School hereby created, then I devise and bequeath the several properties and estates, both real and personal, hereinbefore devised and bequeathed for the purpose aforesaid, to such body or bodies belonging to the Wesleyan Methodist Church in the City of Saint John, and their successors, heirs or assigns, as will be competent to accept and carry out such trust ; and that in case any question thereabout should arise, then and until the same should be determined, it is my wish that my executors hereinafter named should receive, collect, and invest the funds herein for that purpose devised, in the manner before provided, and pay over the same, with all accumulation thereof, to the party or parties entitled to receive the same, and for the purpose aforesaid. I do give, devise and bequeath my lot of land and freehold property in Lower Cove, in the City of Saint John, together with the buildings and improvements thereon, to the Trustees of the School Fund hereinbefore created, to and for the purposes of the said School, and subject to the trusts for the same created :”
