III. And be it enacted, That all the before mentioned Great Roads and all other Great Roads hereafter established shall be at least four rods wide, and shall be worked of such width as the Supervisors in their respective Districts shall deem necessary.

Supervisors to be appointed by the Governor in Council

IV. And be it enacted, That the Lieutenant Governor or Administrator of the Government for the time being, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Executive Council, is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint fit and proper persons to be Supervisors of Great Roads or of parts or portions thereof, not exceeding in the whole one hundred and fifty miles to any one Supervisor, as the said Lieutenant Governor or Administrator of the Government, by and with the advice aforesaid, may deem proper.

Appointments to be made in the month of April and for one year.

V. And be it enacted, That the several and respective Supervisors of Great Roads shall be appointed for and during the space of one year from the first of April in each and every year, and such appointments shall be made annually in the month of March; and in case of death or removal from the Province, or refusal of any Supervisor to act, or for other sufficient cause shown to the Lieutenant Governor or Administrator of the Government for the time being, for the removal of any Supervisor or Supervisors, it shall and may be lawful for the Lieutenant Governor or Administrator of the Government for the time being, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, to nominate and appoint for the remainder of the year some other fit and proper person to be Supervisor in the room of such person so deceased or removed from the Province, or who shall refuse to act or be removed for other sufficient cause.

Supply of casual vacancies.

Supervisors may be displaced for neglect to render Accounts, &c.

VI. And be it enacted, That when it shall be made to appear to the Lieutenant Governor or Administrator of the Government for the time being, that any Supervisor has neglected to render to the Secretary of the Province, Accounts duly vouched and attested of the expenditures of all the moneys received by him from the Treasury of the Province in the year preceding the commencement of the annual Session of the Legislature, at an early period of such annual Session, or who shall have drawn moneys from the Treasury contrary to the rules made by the Lieutenant Governor or Administrator of the Government for the time being, in Council, for the government of Supervisors, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful for the Lieutenant Governor or Administrator of the Government for the time being, and he is hereby authorized and empowered to displace such Supervisor and to appoint another fit person to be Supervisor in his stead.

Supervisors to give security for due discharge of duty.

VII. And be it enacted, That every Supervisor appointed under and by virtue of this Act, shall give security by bond to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, with two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved of by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor or Administrator of the Government for the time being, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Executive Council, in double the amount such Supervisor may have to expend, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties required of him and for the accounting for all public moneys entrusted to him.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the respective Supervisors appointed under and by virtue of this Act, except in cases hereinafter mentioned, shall have the sole ordering of the repairs and alterations which may be necessary for the completing the said Roads within their respective limits or districts, and keeping them at all times during their continuance in office, in the best possible state of repair; and for the purpose of making any alteration they may deem necessary, such Supervisors respectively shall have power and authority and they are hereby authorized to enter upon the lands of any proprietor or proprietors through which it may be thought desirable to make any alteration, in order to make the necessary exploration and survey preparatory to such alteration, doing no unnecessary damage thereto; provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to deprive the several Commissioners of Highways in their respective Parishes of the power of directing the application of the Statute Labour of the inhabitants of the said Parishes, either upon the Great Roads or other Roads within the same as to the said Commissioners may appear most conducive to the public good; provided always, that the said Commissioners shall in no case have the power of altering any Great Road, but are hereby respectively required in all cases where they deem it necessary to expend the Statute Labour or any part thereof on any of the Great Roads of this Province, to adhere to the lines already laid out and established by law, or that may be laid out in pursuance of any law now in force or that may hereafter be in force for that purpose.

Supervisors to have the sole ordering of repairs and alterations of the roads.

Empowered to enter on lands.

Commissioners of Highways may direct the application of the Statute Labour.

IX. And be it enacted, That each and every Supervisor so to be appointed shall in the Spring of the year when the ground is free from snow and ice, carefully examine the whole of the Road under his superintendence, and shall lay off and mark out such allotments as may conveniently be contracted for, in order that the making or repairing of the same may be let by auction to the lowest bidder; and in all such cases such Supervisors respectively are hereby required to put up a sufficient number of notices, not less than ten days previous to such sale, in three or more of the most public places in the neighbourhood where the work is to be done; which notices shall specify and describe the work so to be performed, and also the place, day, and hour, when and where the same will be let at auction as aforesaid; and it shall further be the duty of such Supervisors respectively to attend personally at the time and place so appointed and there to let out to the lowest bidder the several and respective allotments, and at the same time to enter into written contracts with sufficient sureties for the faithful performance of the work in time and manner set forth in such contracts; and in cases where the work required to be performed cannot conveniently be let by auction, it shall be the duty of such Supervisors to agree with fit and proper persons to perform the same by days labour, provided that the sum expended by days work shall in no case exceed twenty per cent of the amount to be expended on the said Road.

Supervisors to carefully examine the roads in the Spring, and mark places to be repaired, &c.

Notices to be posted and work let by auction.

Contracts with sureties to be entered into.

X. And be it enacted, That the Supervisors shall cause all turnpiking, ploughing, and throwing up of the said Roads to be performed previous to the first day of October in each and every year, and shall not permit any contractor or day labourer to perform such work on the Roads under his charge after that date.

Turnpiking, &c. to be performed before the first of October.

XI. And be it enacted, That all the contracts and also all the wages of labourers hired by the day as aforesaid, shall be paid by the said Supervisors in money; and the said Supervisors shall respectively keep an exact account of the expenditures of all sums of money received and paid by them respectively for the Great Roads, and shall produce receipts in writing from the several and respective persons to whom any part of the said sums of money shall be paid, as Contracts and wages to be paid in money.

vouchers

Accounts to be rendered with vouchers.

vouchers for the payment, and shall render an account thereof under oath, (which oath any Justice of the Peace in the several and respective Counties is hereby authorized to administer) to be transmitted to the Secretary of the Province for the inspection and examination of the General Assembly.

Encumbrances on roads to be forfeited after six days notice.

XII. And be it enacted, That all fences, timber, wood, stones, boards, plank, and rubbish of any kind which shall be found to remain upon any part of the said Great Roads after six days previous public notice by the respective Supervisors to remove the same, shall be forfeited; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Supervisors respectively, or any of them, without any suit or process at law whatsoever, to cause all articles so found to be seized and disposed of in such way and manner as he or they may think proper, and if the same shall be sold the proceeds of such sale shall be applied by the said Supervisor or Supervisors for the repairs and improvement of such Roads.

Supervisors may take materials for the repair of the roads.

XIII. And be it enacted, That in case it shall be necessary or expedient for the Supervisors in their respective districts to go out of the said Roads to procure materials for the repairs of the same, it shall and may be lawful for the said Supervisors respectively, when from the absence or obstinacy of the owner or possessor of the soil no agreement can be made with him, to enter with workmen, carts, carriages and teams upon any uncultivated lands, and therefrom to dig, take and carry away for the repairs of the said Road, stone or gravel, and also to cut down and carry away trees and bushes for logs, poles and brushwork to repair the said Roads, and the damage done thereby shall be appraised and ascertained by the judgment of three indifferent freeholders to be nominated by a Justice of the Peace for that purpose, and the sum so ascertained shall be paid or tendered by the Supervisors respectively, to the owner or possessor of the soil, if demanded, within six months after such appraisement.

Damage to be appraised and paid.

No alteration of roads to be made through improved lands without consent of the owner, or payment of value of land taken, and damages.

XIV. And be it enacted, That the said Supervisors for the respective districts shall not make any alteration in any part of the Great Roads within their respective districts, through any improved lands, without the consent of the owner or owners thereof, or agreeing with or paying to him, her or them the value of the said improved lands so to be laid out in such public Road, with such damages as he, she or they may sustain by the said Road; and in case they cannot agree, then the true value to be set and appraised by five disinterested freeholders, to be nominated and appointed by two Justices of the Peace on the oath of such freeholders, which oath any one of the said Justices is hereby authorized and required to administer, and the amount of such value and damages, with the incidental expenses, shall be defrayed by the Supervisors of the respective districts out of the moneys to be granted for the use of the said Great Roads.

In case of disagreement, value to be appraised.

Proprietors, in possession by self or tenant, to be deemed the owner.

XV. And be it enacted, That the proprietor or proprietors in the possession either by themselves or by tenants holding under them, of any lands through which it may be necessary to lay out a Public Road, shall be deemed to be the owner or owners of such lands, to whom the value thereof and the damages sustained are to be paid under the provisions of the previous section of this Act, notwithstanding that such lands may be under mortgage or other incumbrance; and that the freeholders appointed to sit and appraise such value and damages shall also inquire and return in their verdict who are such owner or owners to whom such value and damages are to be paid; and upon payment of such value and damages to the person or persons whom the said freeholders shall so return in their verdict to be the owner or owners of such lands, or upon tender and refusal thereof, such Supervisor shall be fully authorized to lay out such Public Road through such lands; and in case any such alteration lies on the border of two Appraisers to state in their return who are the owners.

two adjacent Counties so as to extend into both, or to render it doubtful as to which of the two Counties the said alteration may be situate in, the Justices and the said freeholders may belong to either County, and the proceedings had by them shall be as valid and effectual as any proceedings under the provisions of this Act; and if any person or persons who may by any of the provisions of this Act be found entitled to receive any sum or sums of money, and on due tender thereof shall not accept of and receive the same, and shall not apply for the same within six calendar months after such tender, then the Supervisor or Supervisors shall pay the same into the Province Treasury, to be disposed of under the direction of the Legislature; and that the Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer to whom such payment shall be made shall be accountable for the same, and shall give such Supervisor a receipt for the sum so paid, which shall be a sufficient discharge to such Supervisor or Supervisors for the same.

Damages tendered, and not accepted, to be paid into the Province Treasury.

XVI. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons do or shall hereafter alter, stop up or encroach upon any of the Great Roads of Communication through this Province in any manner whatever, such person or persons so offending contrary to the meaning of this Act, shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of two pounds, to be recovered with costs of suit before any one of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County where such offence shall be committed, upon the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, and levied by warrant of distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, rendering the overplus, (if any) to such offender; and for the want of sufficient goods and chattels, the said Justice is hereby required to commit such offender to the common gaol of the County where such offence shall be committed, there to remain for a term not exceeding eight days; which penalty, when recovered, shall be paid to the Supervisor for the use of the Great Road within the district.

Penalty for stopping up or encroaching on roads.

Recovery.

XVII. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall wilfully hinder or interrupt any Supervisor in the lawful exercise of the duties incident to his office, such person or persons so offending shall forfeit the sum of five pounds, to be recovered before any Justice of the Peace for the County where such offence may be committed, upon conviction upon the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, to be levied by warrant of distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, to be paid to the Supervisor of the district where such offence shall be committed, for the use of the Public Roads within such district.

Penalty for hindering any Supervisor in exercise of duty.

Recovery.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That in case any action of trespass or action upon the case shall be brought against any or either of the said Supervisors, by occasion of any thing done by him or them in the execution of his or their duty under and by virtue of this Act, such Supervisor or Supervisors may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence at the trial in like manner as if such special matter had been fully and specially pleaded.

Supervisors may in actions against them plead the general issue.

XIX. And be it enacted, That no action shall be brought or commenced against any Supervisor for any act, matter or thing whatever by any such Supervisor done, performed or committed in or about the execution of his duty, until after one month's notice of such action to be brought shall have been given to such Supervisor, and every action against any Supervisor shall be confined to the subject matter stated in such notice; and it shall and may be lawful for any such Supervisor to whom notice of action shall so be given, at any time before action brought, to make and tender amends to the party aggrieved, and if such amends shall not be accepted, then such Supervisor may pay such money into Court, and if the plaintiff shall not recover greater damages than the amount so tendered and paid in, the said defendant shall recover his costs of suit.

No action to be brought against a Supervisor until after one month's notice.

Supervisors to make returns of their roads and alterations.

XX. And be it enacted, That the Supervisors of the respective districts for which they may be appointed, shall enter in writing the alterations that may from time to time be made in any of the Great Roads under their superintendence, and make a return thereof into the Office of the Secretary of the Province, and also a duplicate into the Office of Clerk of the Peace for the County in which such public Road lies, to be by such Clerk entered in a book kept by him for that purpose, and whatsoever the said Supervisors shall respectively do according to the power to them given by this Act, shall be valid and good.

Compensation to Supervisors.

XXI. And be it enacted, That each of the said Supervisors shall be allowed to retain for his services at and after the rate of ten per centum out of the moneys granted for the use of the Roads.

Act may be amended.

XXII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be altered and amended at any time during the present Session of the Legislature.

CAP. LIII.

An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Landlord and Tenant, and regulating proceedings in Replevin.

Passed 26th April 1850.

Preamble.

6 WHEREAS it is deemed advisable to consolidate and amend all the Laws 'relating to Landlord and Tenant and proceedings in Replevin;'

Repeal of

I. Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council and Assembly, That an Act made and passed in the fiftieth year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to regulate proceedings in actions of Replevin, and to enable the sale of goods distrained for rent, in case the rent be not paid in a reasonable time, and for the more effectual securing the payment of rents and preventing frauds by Tenants; also an Act made and passed in the fourth year of the Reign of His late Majesty William the Fourth, intituled An Act in addition to and in amendment of an Act made and passed in the fiftieth year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to regulate the proceedings in actions of Replevin, and to enable the sale of goods distrained for rent, in case the rent be not paid in a reasonable time, and for the more effectual securing the payment of rents, and preventing fraud by Tenants;' also an Act made and passed in the eighth year of the said last mentioned Reign, intituled An Act relating to Landlord and Tenant; also an Act made and passed in the third year of the Reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled An Act further to regulate proceedings in Replevin, by allowing damages in certain cases to the defendant; also the thirty first, thirty second, thirty sixth and thirty seventh sections of an Act made and passed in the twelfth year of the said last mentioned Reign, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend various Acts of Assembly relating to the further amendment of the Law; be and the same are hereby repealed: Provided always, that all acts, matters and things heretofore done under and by virtue of the said several Acts or any of them hereby repealed, shall be and remain good, valid and effectual so far as they are in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or any of them; and provided also, that all actions and proceedings had and taken and now pending under the provisions of the said several Acts or any of them, shall in no wise be affected by the repeal of the said Acts, but that the same may be prosecuted and concluded in all respects as if the said several Acts still remained and continued in full force and effect; provided also, that no Act or part of an Act repealed by any of the said Acts hereby repealed, shall revive or come into force after the passing of this Act.
