CAP. XXVIII.

An Act relating to the escheating of Mining Licences or Leases, and also of Mill Reserves, and recovery of Crown Debts.

Passed 3rd May 1853.

‘WHEREAS, where the conditions of Mining Licences or Leases, or Mill Reserves, have not been complied with, and the same are in consequence liable to forfeiture under the existing law, to effect the Escheat it is frequently necessary to proceed by Scire Facias; it is therefore desirable to provide some more easy and less expensive mode of effecting this object;

Be it enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council and Assembly, as follows:—

Preamble.

1. From and after the passing of this Act, any Mining Licence or Lease, or Mill Reserve, may be escheated in manner following, that is to say:—Upon its being reported by the Crown Law Officers to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor in Council, that the conditions of such Mining Licence or Lease, or Mill Reserve, have been broken or not complied with, and that such Lease, Licence, or Mill Reserve, is therefore liable to forfeiture, it shall and may be lawful for His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor in Council to direct the Attorney General, or in his absence the Solicitor General, to give notice to the Lessee, Licencee or Reservee, of the grounds of the alleged forfeiture, with notice thereunder that unless such Lessee, Licencee or Reservee shall, within a period to be named in such notice, which shall not be less than thirty days after service of such notice, make it appear to the satisfaction of the Lieutenant Governor in Council that he has not been guilty of the breaches of the conditions or grounds of forfeiture charged in such notice, the Lieutenant Governor in Council is hereby authorised and empowered in his discretion to escheat and annul such Lease, Licence

Proceedings for escheat of any Mining Licence or Lease, or Mill Reserve. Notice of ground of forfeiture to be served.
