8. The said Corporation shall make, allow and pay reasonable and proper compensation and satisfaction for all lands, tenements and hereditaments taken and occupied, altered, damaged or spoiled by means of, and for the uses and purposes of the said Corporation, to be agreed upon by the said Corporation and the respective owners and occupiers of such lands, tenements and hereditaments; and in case of disagreement between the said Corporation and the said owners and occupiers, or any of them, then such compensation or satisfaction shall be determined by three arbitrators, one to be chosen by the said Corporation, and one by the owner or owners, occupier or occupiers of the private property in question, which two arbitrators so chosen shall choose the third arbitrator; and in case of their not agreeing in such choice within ten days after their appointment, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful for the Lieutenant Governor or Administrator of the Government for the time being, upon the application of the said Corporation, to appoint the third arbitrator, and the award of the said arbitrators, or any two of them, shall be final and conclusive in the matters referred to them; and in case any of the said owners or occupiers of such private lands shall decline making any such agreement, or appointing such arbitrator, then and in every such case, the said Corporation shall make application to the Supreme Court of this Province, or some Judge thereof, stating the grounds of such application; and such Court or Judge is hereby empowered and required from time to time, upon such application, to issue a writ or warrant directed to the Sheriff of the County in which such lands lie, or in case of his being a party interested, then to any Coroner of such County not interested, and in case of the said Sheriff and Coroner being both interested, then to some other person or persons

Compensation to be made for lands, &c., taken, occupied or damaged.

In case of disagreement the amount to be settled by arbitrators or by a Jury empanelled under the authority of the Supreme Court.

persons who may be disinterested, commanding such Sheriff, Coroner, person or persons, as the case may be, to summon and empanel a jury of five freeholders within the said County, who may be altogether disinterested, which jury upon their oaths (all which oaths as well as the oaths to be taken by any person or persons who shall be called upon to give evidence in the matter, the Sheriff, Coroner, or person or persons summoning such jury, is hereby empowered to administer) shall inquire, ascertain and assess the distinct sum or sums of money or annual rent to be paid as the amount of compensation and satisfaction for the damages that may and shall be sustained by such owner or owners, occupier or occupiers of such private property as aforesaid; and the award, inquisition or verdict of such jury shall be retained and filed in the Office of the Clerk of the Pleas in the said Supreme Court, and shall be final and conclusive between the parties; which amount so assessed as aforesaid, and the costs and expenses of such proceedings to be taxed and allowed by the said Supreme Court, or one of the Judges thereof, shall be borne by the said Corporation, and shall be by them paid within thirty days after the said inquisition, award or verdict shall be filed as aforesaid.

Authority to erect gates and demand tolls.

Rate.

9. The said Company shall erect and set up, or cause to be erected and set up, one or more gate or gates, turnpike or turnpikes, in, upon and across the said intended bridge, or within twenty yards thereof, together with toll houses and proper necessary buildings, conveniences and fences near to each gate or turnpike across the said intended bridge, or on the road or avenue immediately communicating therewith, and within twenty yards of the said bridge; and the respective tolls following may be demanded and taken by such person or persons as the said Company shall from time to time appoint as toll gatherer, for each and every time of passing over the said bridge, that is to say:—For every foot passenger, not to exceed four pence; for every horse, mare, gelding, mule, or ass, not exceeding four pence; for every carriage drawn by one horse or beast of draught, with one person, not to exceed one shilling; for every horse or beast of draught more than one, drawing a carriage, not to exceed four pence; for every person more than one, with a carriage, not to exceed four pence; for neat cattle, not to exceed two pence each; for sheep, calves or hogs, not to exceed one half penny each; provided always, that no toll be exacted from children under five years of age; and the Company shall at all times by their bye laws regulate, alter and lessen the rate of tolls, when deemed advisable for the interest of the Company, but in no case exceed the rates herein specified; and at all times when the toll gatherer shall not attend to his duty, the gate or gates shall be left open; and the toll shall be collected in such manner as may be prescribed by the said Corporation; the rates of toll shall be fairly and legibly printed in large letters, and kept constantly exposed to the view of passengers.

Horses, beasts and carriages to walk over the bridge.

10. No horse or other beast, or carriage of any kind, shall be taken, rode or driven over the said bridge at a faster pace than a walk, on pain of a forfeiture of twenty shillings for each and every offence, to be recovered with costs of prosecution against the owner or driver of such horse or other beast, before any Justice of the Peace of the County, on the complaint of the toll gatherer or any proprietor of stock in the said Company, on proof of the toll gatherer or any hereby declared to be a competent witness, or any other legal proof; the amount when recovered to be applied to the use of the said Corporation.

Penalty for evading the payment of toll.

11. Any person who shall run or evade the payment of toll from crossing the said bridge, shall forfeit and pay for the use of the said Corporation the sum of ten shillings for each and every offence, to be recovered, together with the toll and costs of suit, as is directed in the last preceding section of this Act. 12.

12. If any person shall wilfully and maliciously, and to the prejudice of the said undertaking, break, damage, throw down or destroy any of the works to be erected or made by virtue of this Act, any such person shall be adjudged guilty of felony; and every such person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be liable to the punishment prescribed for felony by the laws of this Province.

Penalty for malicious injuries to the works.

13. No toll whatever shall be demanded or taken for any horse, beast, cattle or carriage of whatever description, employed or to be employed in conveying, fetching or guarding Mails of letters and expresses, under the authority of Her Majesty's Postmaster General, or the duly authorised Post Office authorities in this Province, or of the Provincial Government, either when employed in conveying, fetching or guarding the same; or for any soldiers upon their march, or upon duty, or for any horse, cattle or carriages, attending them with their arms and baggage, or returning after having been so employed, nor for any wagon, cart or other carriage whatsoever, or the horse or horses, or other cattle drawing the same, which shall be employed in conveying any Ordnance, Barrack, Commissariat or other public stores, of or belonging to Her Majesty's service; and no poor, or other rates or taxes, shall be assessed or levied upon the said Company, for or on account of the said bridge and its appurtenances.

Cattle and carriages with mails, Soldiers on their march, and Ordnance stores, &c., exempted from tolls.

14. The Directors shall at the general annual meeting of the Company in each and every year, lay before the stockholders for their information, an exact and particular statement of the state of the affairs and business of the said Company, agreeably to the several regulations of this Act, so as the same may contain a true account of the whole affairs of the said Company; which statement shall be signed by the Directors, and attested by the Secretary.

Statement of the Company affairs to be laid before the Directors at the annual-meeting.

15. If any shareholder shall fail to pay the amount of any assessment made by the said Company, or any part thereof, it shall be lawful for the said Company to sue such shareholder for the amount thereof, or so much thereof as may be and remain due and owing thereon, in any Court of law or equity, having competent jurisdiction, and to recover the same, with lawful interest, from the day on which such assessment was payable, with costs of suit.

Shareholders failing to pay the assessments may be sued.

16. In any action or suit to be brought by the said Company against any shareholder to recover any money due for any call, it shall not be necessary to set forth the special matter, but it shall be sufficient for the said Company to declare that the defendant is the holder of one or more shares in the said Company, [state the number of shares] and is indebted to the said Company in the sum of money to which the assessment or assessments in arrear shall amount, in respect of one assessment or more upon one share or more, [state the number and amount of such assessments] by means of which an action hath accrued to the said Company by virtue of this Act.

Declaration in suit.

17. On the trial or hearing of such action or suit, it shall be sufficient to prove that the defendant, at the time of making such assessment, was a holder of one share or more in the said undertaking, and that such assessment was in fact made, and it shall not be necessary to prove any other matter whatsoever, and thereupon the said Company shall be entitled to recover what shall be due upon such call, and interest thereon.

Proof.

18. Should the Provincial Government, at any time after the passing of this Act, be willing and desirous of assuming the said bridge, and placing the same upon the great road establishment of the Province, for the free passage of all Her Majesty's subjects, and pay to the said Corporation the whole costs and outlay in and about its erection and maintenance, then and in such case the said Corporation

Bridge may be assumed by the Provincial Government on payment of cost, &c.

ration shall yield and surrender up to the said Provincial Government the said bridge, with all things appertaining thereto, together with this Act, and such Corporation, from that time, shall cease and have no longer any existence.

Act to be null if bridge be not completed in three years.

19. If the said Company shall not within three years from and after the passing of this Act, complete the said Bridge, or so as to make the same passable for horses and carriages, then and from thenceforth all and singular the powers and authorities vested in them by this Act shall cease and determine to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

CAP. LXIII.
