

CAP. XXVI.

An Act to alter the time for holding the Inferior Courts of Common Pleas and General Sessions of the Peace in the Counties of York and Sunbury.

Section.

1. Time for Courts of Common Pleas for York and Sunbury.

Section.

2. Act 13 V. c. 47, in part repealed.

Passed 13th April 1859.

BE it enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly, as follows:—

1. That the Term of the Inferior Courts of Common Pleas for the Counties of York and Sunbury, and the Courts of General Sessions of the Peace for the said Counties, shall hereafter be held on the first Tuesday in January in each and every year instead of the second Tuesday in January, provided that when the first Tuesday in January shall happen to be New Year's Day, the said Courts shall open on the following day, but all the proceedings shall be as of the first Tuesday, and relate thereto.

2. That so much of an Act made and passed in the thirteenth year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws to provide for the administration of Justice in the Inferior Courts of Common Pleas and General Sessions of the Peace, as is inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, is hereby repealed.

CAP. XXVII.

An Act in amendment of Chapter 137, Title XXXVII, of the Revised Statutes, 'Of the jurisdiction of Justices in Civil Suits,' so far as relates to the duties of Constables.

Process may be served by Parish Constables in any part of the County.

Passed 13th April 1859.

WHEREAS doubts at present exist whether processes can be legally served by Constables appointed for a particular Parish, beyond the limits of the Parish for which such Constable may have been elected or appointed;—

Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly,—That all processes in actions before Justices of the Peace in Civil Suits, may be served by Constables appointed or elected for any particular Parish, in any part of the respective Counties in which the Parish for which the said Constable may have been elected or appointed is situated.

Passed 13th April 1859.

BE it enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly, as follows:—

1. Every Attorney of the Supreme Court, on or before the first day of Trinity Term in each year, shall pay to the Clerk of the Pleas the sum of fifteen shillings, which shall be paid by the said Clerk to the Treasurer of the Barristers' Society, for the purpose of providing for and maintaining the Law Library under the direction of the said Society.

2. Every Attorney of the Supreme Court shall, during the time he shall so pay the said annual sum, be entitled to enter the Library and have the free use of the Books therein, subject to such rules and regulations for the care, safe keeping, and control thereof, as the Barristers' Society of New Brunswick may from time to time prescribe.

3. No Attorney shall be allowed to practice in the said Supreme Court after the first day of Trinity Term in each year, unless such payment is made, but an Attorney who has neglected to make the payment on or before the first day of Trinity Term, may do so at any time thereafter for the purpose of enabling him to resume his practice.
