7. Powers under this Act to be specially delegated to Committees.
 8. Certified proceedings to be evidence in Courts of Law.
 9. Protection of Members of the Legislature and Witnesses.
 10. Limitation of Act.
- Schedule—Oath, Summons.

Passed 8th March 1860.

BE it enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly, as follows:—

1. That any joint Committee of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, or any Committee of the Legislative Council, or of the House of Assembly, appointed for the purpose of making any investigation or enquiry in relation to any public office or public work, and authorized as hereinafter provided, shall have full power to send for persons, papers, and records, and to examine all Witnesses on oath.

2. The Chairman of any such Committee, or in his absence any member thereof, shall have full power during the sitting of and in the presence of such Committee, to administer the Witnesses' oath in the Schedule to this Act appended, marked

A, to any person or Witness attending before such Committee; and a minute of such oath having been administered, shall be duly entered on the minutes of the proceedings of such Committee.

3. If any person duly served with the Summons, letter B in Schedule hereto, and having his reasonable expenses tendered unto him, if demanded, shall wilfully disobey such summons, or if any Witness before such Committee shall misdemean himself in giving, or refusing to give evidence, the Chairman or any member of the Committee, by resolution of a majority of such Committee, may at any time during the investigation or enquiry, report such misconduct to the Legislative Council or House of Assembly from whichever branch of the Legislature such Committee may have been formed, or if a joint Committee of both Houses then to both; and the Legislative Council or House of Assembly may commit the offender into custody for contempt, for any period during the then Session of the Legislature.

4. Any person duly sworn, wilfully and falsely testifying before such Committee, in any matter material to the investigation or enquiry in question, shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and on conviction shall suffer the penalties prescribed by Law for the crime of perjury.

5. All persons and Witnesses summoned to attend, and attending before any such Committee, shall be entitled to their reasonable expenses, and shall be paid by Warrant of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, on such expenses being duly certified by the Chairman of such Committee.

6. That the summons to be issued under this Act, shall be signed by the Chairman, or in his absence by any two members of the Committee, and shall be personally served upon the party to whom it may be directed.

7. That in order to exercise the powers vested by this Act, the same shall be specially delegated to any such Committee, by resolution of the Legislative Council or House of Assembly, from which such Committee may be formed, or by joint resolution of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in case the Committee shall be a joint Committee of both Houses.

8. That for the purposes of this Act, a copy of the resolution or resolutions forming such Committee, and delegating such powers, and of the evidence taken before such Committee, duly certified by the Clerk of the House, shall be evidence in all Courts of Law, of the fact of such Committee under this Act having been formed, and of such evidence having been given.

9. Provided that no Member of the Legislative Council or Assembly, shall be subject to any of the provisions of this Act; but any such Member may, by leave of the House to which he belongs, attend the other House or any of the Committees raised as aforesaid as heretofore accustomed and according to Parliamentary usage; and provided also, that no Witness who may attend any Committee under this Act, shall be compelled to answer any question which may criminate himself, or answer any question which in a Court of Justice he could not be required to answer, or produce any paper which in such Court he could not be required to produce; nor shall any evidence given by such Witness subject him to any action or proceeding whatever by any party in any Court of Law, nor be used against him in any case, other than on an indictment for perjury under this Act.

10. This Act shall not be in force for any longer time than two years from the time of the passing thereof, and thence to the end of the then next Session of the General Assembly.

CAP. III.

An Act in amendment of the Law relating to Courts of Probate.

Section.

1. On decree of performance of Contracts, Judge may direct conveyance of Land to be executed.

Section.

2. Bond to be taken in lieu of recognizance from Guardians: suit: maintenance and education.
Form of Bond.

Passed 8th March 1860.

BE it enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly, as follows:—

1. Whenever any Judge of Probates may after the hearing decree that specific performance shall be made of any Contract under the provisions of Section 43, of Chapter 136, of the Revised Statutes, he may direct a conveyance of the land in question to be executed by any infant heir, or guardian or person appearing on the infant's behalf, or by the person decreed to convey the same under the Contract, or by the Registrar of the Court as the officer thereof; the whole to be done under the sanction and with the approbation of the Judge, and on such terms with respect to the payment of any money which may be due, or any condition to be performed by the party seeking for the specific performance within the conditions of the Contract, and with respect to the costs of the proceeding as may by the said Judge be deemed just.

2. Whenever under the provisions of the forty fourth Section of the said Chapter 136, a guardian shall be appointed for the estate of any infant, the Judge of Probates who may order the appointment of such guardian, shall in lieu of the recognizance therein mentioned, take from him a Bond (A) in the name of such Judge, with one or more sufficient sureties; and on the application of the infant, his next friend, or any person interested, the Judge may, if satisfied of the necessity thereof, order the said Bond to be put in suit in the name of the Judge for the time being, and on such terms as he shall therein pre-
