64. Any Volunteer Companies so called out for actual service, may be embodied into Battalions, if the Commander in Chief thinks fit so to order.

65. The Militiamen so taken or drafted for actual service from Class B and C of the Active Militia, shall serve during one year, unless sooner disbanded, and may then be replaced by others taken as aforesaid, and shall not be liable to be again taken until all others of the same class be taken: But the men in Volunteer Militia Companies shall serve for the time for which they have engaged to serve, which time shall not be less than two years, subject however to be determined on two months notice as hereinbefore mentioned; provided that no volunteer shall leave the service, either with or without notice, at any time when the Militia are called out, unless he is regularly discharged or has served out the time for which he engaged.

68. Any body of Militia so called out shall be commanded by the officer highest in rank then present, or the senior of two or more officers of equal rank; Officers of Her Majesty's Regular Army shall always be reckoned senior to all Militia Officers of the same rank, whatever be the dates of their respective Commissions.

74. Any Militia officer or man, not exempt from attending drill and exercise, who neglects or refuses to attend the same, at the place and hour appointed therefor, or refuses or neglects to obey any lawful order at or concerning such drill and exercise, shall thereby incur a penalty of not more than twenty dollars for each offence.

75. Any person who intercepts or hinders any Militia at drill, or trespasses on the bounds set out by the proper officer for such drill, shall thereby incur a penalty of five dollars for each offence, and may be taken into custody and detained by any person, by the order of the commanding officer, until such drill be over for the day.

76. Any person who unlawfully disposes of, or removes any arms or accoutrements, or other articles belonging to the Crown, or refuses to deliver up the same when lawfully required, or has the same in his possession except for lawful cause, (the proof of which shall lie upon him), shall thereby incur a penalty of twenty dollars for each offence; but this shall not prevent such offender from being indicted and punished for any greater offence, if the facts amount to such, instead of being subject to the penalty aforesaid; and any person charged with any act subjecting him to the penalty imposed by this Section, may be arrested by order of the Magistrate before whom the complaint is made, upon affidavit shewing that there is reason to believe that such person is about to leave the Province, carrying any such arms, accoutrements or articles with him.

79. Any person who wilfully contravenes any enactment of this Act, when no other penalty is imposed for such contravention, shall thereby incur a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars for each offence, but this shall not prevent his being indicted and punished for any greater offence, if the facts amount to such.

80. All penalties incurred under this Act, or any regulations, orders, or articles of engagement lawfully made or entered into under it, where no other mode is herein prescribed for the recovery thereof, shall be recoverable, with costs, on the evidence of one credible witness, on complaint or information before one Justice of the Peace, if the amount do not exceed twenty dollars, and before two Justices of the Peace if the amount exceeds that sum; and to the recovery of such penalties all the provisions of any law then in force relative to the performance of the duties of the Justices of the Peace out of Sessions, with respect to summary convictions and orders, shall apply in so far as may not be inconsistent with this Act; and any officer, non-commissioned officer, or private of any Volunteer Militia Company, shall be a competent witness in any such case, although the penalty is applicable to the purposes of such Company.

83. No such prosecution shall be commenced after the expiration of six months from the commission of the offence charged, unless it be unlawfully buying, selling, or having in possession arms or accoutrements delivered to the Militia.

84. It shall not be necessary that any order or notice under this Act be in writing, unless it is herein required that it shall be so, provided it be communicated to the person who is to obey or be bound by it in person, either directly by the officer or person making or giving it, or by some other by his order.

89. Every sum of money which any person or Corporation is, under this Act, liable to pay or repay to the Crown, or which is equivalent to the damages done to any arms or other property of the Crown used for Militia purposes, shall be a debt due to the Crown, and may be recovered in any manner in which such debts may be recovered.
