

CAP. XX.

An Act relating to Members of the House of Assembly and Legislative Council.

Members of Parliament of Canada incapable of sitting in Local Legislature.

Passed 17th June 1867.

BE it enacted by the Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly,—That no person being a Member of the Senate or House of Commons of Canada, shall be capable of being appointed to, or sitting or voting in the Legislative Council of this Province, or of being elected, or of sitting or voting in the House of Assembly thereof; and if any person, being a Member of the Legislative Council or of the House of Assembly of this Province, shall accept a seat in the Senate or be elected as a Member of the House of Commons of Canada, his seat in the Legislative Council or House of Assembly of this Province, as the case may be, shall thereby be vacated.

CAP. XXI.

An Act to amend the Act to incorporate the Woodstock Bank.

Passed 17th June 1867.

WHEREAS it is found desirable to amend the Act made and passed in the twenty eighth year of Her present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to incorporate the Woodstock Bank;—

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly,—That the time fixed in and by the second Section of the said recited Act for the payment of the first instalment of the capital stock of the said Corporation, be extended for a further period of four years from the time of the passing of this Act, and that the time fixed for the payment of the remainder of the capital stock shall also be extended for the period of four years from the time of the passing of this Act.

CAP. XXII.

An Act to amend an Act intituled An Act to incorporate the Saint Stephens Branch Railroad Company.

Liability of Stockholders.

Passed 17th June 1867.

WHEREAS it may be doubtful whether the subscribers for shares in the capital stock of the Corporation of the Saint

Stephens Branch Railroad Company are or can be made legally liable for the amount of the sum or sums by them respectively subscribed, as shareholders in the said capital stock, by reason of the capital stock of said Company being made to consist of three hundred thousand dollars, and all of which sum may not have been subscribed: And whereas also it may be doubtful whether any assessment made on such subscribers, and the notices of same required by the said recited Act to be given, are regular, unless the said amount of capital stock had first been fully subscribed: And whereas the said Railroad is now in running order;—

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly,—That the subscribers to such capital stock shall be held liable in the same manner and to the same extent as if the whole of the capital stock, as in said recited Act is mentioned, had been fully subscribed; and all assessments made; and the notices thereof under said recited Act shall be held as having been regularly made, notwithstanding the capital stock of three hundred thousand dollars has not or may not be fully subscribed for; and that the respective subscribers to the said shares in the capital stock aforesaid shall be liable to the assessments made or to be made, in the same manner and to the same extent as if the whole amount of three hundred thousand dollars of capital stock had been subscribed for and taken up.
