

Acts of the General Assembly of His Majesty's Province of New-Brunswick passed in the year 1820. Fredericton, NB: George K. Lugin, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1820.

60 George III – Chapter 8

An Act to explain, amend, and continue an Act, intituled "An Act to encourage the raising of Bread-Corn on new Land." Passed the 22d of March 1820.

Whereas doubts have arisen, whether in and by the first section of an Act made and passed in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to encourage the raising of Bread-Corn on new land," persons raising grain on new land are not entitled to receive the bounty on two crops of grain, provided the same is raised within two years from the time when the wood thereon shall have been cut down, burned, or cleared off the said land.—To prevent such doubt in future,

I. Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant- Governor, Council, and Assembly, That no person or persons shall be entitled to receive any of the bounties, by the said Act given, for more than one crop of grain raised on the same new land in this Province.

And whereas it is found expedient to limit the lowest quantity of grain that shall be entitled to any of the bounties allowed in and by the said Act,

II. Be it therefore further enacted, That no person or persons shall be entitled to any of the bounties allowed in and by the said Act, unless the quantity of the different kinds of grain so raised by such person or persons, and for which the said bounties are claimed, shall amount in the whole to ten bushels.

III. And be it further enacted, That to the oath required to be taken by the owner or occupier of the land, as set forth in the said section of the said Act, there be added the following words after the words "was taken off," viz. "and that they were of the first and only crop of grain raised on land from which the wood was so cut down, burnt, or cleared off, as aforesaid."

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said Act be and the same is hereby further continued (excepting where the same is hereby altered and amended) and declared to be in full force for five years, and thence to the end of the then next Session of the General Assembly.
