

Acts of the General Assembly of His Majesty's Province of New-Brunswick passed in the year 1823. Fredericton, NB: George K. Lugin, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1823.

4 George IV – Chapter 20

An Act to amend an Act, intituled "An Act for the better extinguishing Fires which may happen in the Towns of Fredericton and Saint Andrews." Passed the 27th March, 1823.

Whereas by an Act made and passed in the second year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the better extinguishing Fires which may happen in the Towns of Fredericton and Saint Andrews": it is enacted, "That the fines and penalties to be recovered under and by virtue of the said recited Act, shall be paid into the hands of the Overseers of the Poor, towards the support thereof: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such fines and penalties be paid into the hands of the Firewards of the said Towns respectively, or to their Treasurer for the time being, to be by them applied towards defraying the necessary expences of keeping the Engines of the said Towns respectively, in a proper state of equipment, and any other necessary expences attending keeping the Fire Companies of the said Towns respectively, in a proper state of organization —

I. Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Assembly, That so much of the said recited Act as directs the fines and penalties to be recovered under the said recited Act, to be paid into the hands of the Overseers of the Poor, towards the support thereof, be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said lines and penalties so to be recovered under and by virtue of the said recited Act, shall, when so recovered, be paid into the hands of the Firewards of the said Towns of Fredericton and Saint Andrews respectively, or to their Treasurers respectively for the time being, to be applied by them towards defraying the necessary expences attending the keeping the engines of the said Towns respectively, in a proper state of repair and equipment, and any other necessary expences attending the keeping the Fire Companies of the said Towns respectively, in a proper state of organization.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said recited Act, (except wherein the same is hereby repealed, altered, or amended) be, and continue in full force, and that this Act do continue in force during the continuance of the said recited Act.
