

Acts of the General Assembly of Her Majesty's Province of New-Brunswick passed in the year 1842. Fredericton, NB: John Simpson, Printer to the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, 1842.

5 Victoria – Chapter 17

An Act to erect the upper part of the Parish of Wakefield, in the County of Carleton, into a separate and distinct Town or Parish. Passed 29th March 1842.

Whereas the Parish of Wakefield, in the County of Carleton, is so extensive as to render the performance of the duties of the Parish Officers therein inconvenient and troublesome; therefore

I. Be it enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council and Assembly, That all that part of the present Parish of Wakefield, which lies to the Northward of the lower or Southern boundary line of Lot number thirty eight, granted to David Good, and its Westwardly prolongation, be and the same is hereby erected into a separate and distinct Town or Parish to be called by the name of the Town or Parish of Simonds.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace for the said County, shall at their first General Sessions in each and every year, appoint Parish Officers for the said new Town or Parish in like manner as for the other Towns or Parishes in the said County; and until the next January Sessions the officers lately appointed for the said Town or Parish of Wakefield, shall continue and perform the duties of their several offices in and throughout both of the said Parishes, as if this Act had not been passed.
