9 Victoria – Chapter 27

An Act to amend the Law relating to Absconding Debtors. Passed 11th April 1846.

Whereas by the twenty fourth section of an Act made and passed in the twenty sixth year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for relief against Absconding Debtors, the Trustees of the Creditors are required in rendering their accounts, to make oath of the correctness of their proceedings and accounts in open Court: And whereas the requiring the attendance of such Trustees in open Court is unnecessarily inconvenient and burdensome upon Trustees; for remedy whereof,

Be it enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council and Assembly, That from and after the passing of this Act, such Trustees shall, and they are hereby authorized, to render into the Court from the Judge or Judges whereof they have received their appointment, a just and true account in writing of their proceedings, duly attested to before any Judge of such Court, or any Commissioner authorized to take affidavits in such Court; and such Court or the major part of the Judges thereof shall and may make such order thereon as they may deem advisable, not inconsistent with the provisions of the said recited Act.
