

Acts of the General Assembly of Her Majesty's Province of New-Brunswick passed in the year 1847. Fredericton, NB: John Simpson, Printer to the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, 1847.

10 Victoria – Chapter 67

An Act to alter part of the Great Road of Communication leading from Newcastle to Bathurst.
Passed 14th April 1847.

Whereas that part of the Great Road of Communication leading from Newcastle to Bathurst, lying between Big Bartibogue River and Dixon's Ferry, is inconvenient, and, at certain seasons of the year, dangerous, and an alteration therein would shorten the distance, and render it more convenient for travellers;

Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council and Assembly, That that part of the Great Road of Communication from Newcastle to Bathurst, lying between the Big Bartibogue River and Dixon's Ferry, shall commence at the Bridge over the said Bartibogue River, at the late John Curry's, and shall run in a south westerly direction till it strikes Russell's meadows, (so called) on the Little Bartibogue River, below the Forks; thence, on a line as straight as practicable, till it strikes the Road leading from Dixon's Ferry to the second tier of Lots, near the present Great Road; and that the said line of Road, when laid out, shall and the same is hereby declared to be part of the said Great Road.
