II. And be it enacted, That in any case where a notice of the examination of any insolvent confined debtor shall have been given under the provisions of this Act by any person or persons authorized to take such examination, it shall and may be lawful (in case of the illness, absence or inability to attend of the person or persons who issued such notice of examination,) for any other person or persons authorized to take examinations of confined debtors, who, at the request of the person or persons who issued the notice of examination, may attend for that purpose, to proceed to the examination of such confined debtor, and to hear and determine the application for support, and to make all such order or orders thereon, and on any proceedings subsequently had in regard to the support or withholding the support of such confined debtor, as to such person or persons taking such examination may seem meet; provided always, that such examination shall be had and taken at the time and place specified in the notice of examination, and that an entry shall be made in the minutes of such examination of the same having been taken by the person or persons who shall take the same, in lieu of the person or persons who issued the notice, and the cause thereof.

III. And be it enacted, That each and every defendant committed to gaol in execution upon any judgment recovered before any Justice of the Peace in such Justice's Court, shall be entitled to the benefit of this Act; and such Justices or any other Justice of the Peace of the County in the gaol of which the defendant shall be confined, upon such application, notice and examination, as are prescribed in the cases mentioned in this Act, shall make the like orders for the relief of such defendant in every respect as if the execution against such defendant had issued out of either of the Courts before mentioned in this Act.

V. And be it enacted, That when any plaintiff or defendant shall have occasion to compel the attendance of any witness or witnesses, to testify or give evidence before the Judge or Justices to or before whom any application, examination or other proceeding may be had under this Act, it shall and may be lawful for such plaintiff or defendant to issue a Subpoena, or if need be, a Subpoena duces tecum, out of the Court from which the process under which the person is confined may have issued, commanding and requiring the attendance, of such witness, and the production of books and papers before such Judge or Justices, at the time and place in such Subpoena to be specified; which said Subpoena shall be served, and the witness paid or tendered his reasonable expenses in the same manner as if the Subpoena had issued from such Court in the ordinary manner; and the witness or person served therewith shall be subject to the same punishment by such Court, or liable to the like damages in all respects to the party injured, for wilfully refusing or neglecting to obey such Subpoena, as in any other case he would be liable or subject to.

VI. And be it enacted, That when any person so confined shall be possessed of money or debts at the time of his or her confinement or afterwards, and shall have offered to pay or assign the same to the party at whose suit such person may be confined, or in case there be several parties, to them respectively, in part payment of and in proportion to such demand or demands, or when such confined person shall be possessed of either real or personal property, (excepting nevertheless, wearing apparel, bedding, and tools, to the value of fifteen pounds, as before excepted,) and shall have offered to convey and assign the same to the party or parties at whose suit or suits such person may be confined, at a fair price, to be agreed upon, in part payment, or in proportion as aforesaid, and in case of disagreement as to the price or value of such property, shall have offered to pay in manner aforesaid the proceeds arising from the sale of such property, which said property shall be sold at public auction by such confined person, after having first advertised the time and place of the sale thereof for the space of fourteen days, and given the party or parties respectively, or their attorneys, notice of such sale, and the said party or parties shall have refused to accept and receive the said payment or assignments, or the said proceeds arising from the said sale of the said property as aforesaid, that then it shall and may be lawful for the said person so confined to assign or pay over the same to any other bona fide creditor or creditors and that when such party or parties may have received such assignment or payment from such confined person as aforesaid, or when the confined person, in case of refusal by such party or parties, may have assigned or paid the same to other bona fide creditors as aforesaid, that then in either of such cases the said confined person shall be entitled to the benefit of this Act, in all respects the same as if such person had no such debt or property at the time of confinement or application.

VII. And be it enacted, That such allowance shall be paid to the gaoler of the County in which such debtor may be confined, at any time during the day (between sunrise and sunset) such allowance becomes due, for the use and support of such confined debtor.

IX. And be it enacted, That if it shall at any time be made out to the satisfaction of any Judge or Justices as aforesaid, that the person so applying for, or having support under this Act, (and having the benefit of the gaol, limits,) can either by labour or otherwise earn or procure his or her necessary support or maintenance, such Judge or Justices shall and may refuse to make such order for support as aforesaid, or in case the same be made, to suspend the same in the manner hereinbefore provided.

XI. And be it enacted, That any person who may have received such weekly allowance for the space of six months, shall immediately thereafter be entitled to his or her discharge from confinement, at the suit of the party who may have paid the same; and in such case the said Judge or Justices of the Peace who made the order for such weekly support, or any other Judge or Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, is hereby authorized and required to discharge such person from custody at the suit of the party who may have paid the support: provided always, that in case of such discharge, the party shall be entitled to the same remedy by proceeding to final judgment, or taking out execution against goods, chattels, lands and tenements, as is provided hereinbefore.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the Executors and Administrators of any such creditor as aforesaid, shall and may consent to the discharge of any debtor or debtors to their testator or intestate, in such and the same manner, and with the same advantages and consequences in all respects as such creditors if living might or could have done in pursuance of this Act, and such Executors and Administrators respectively, shall not by reason of any such discharge in pursuance of this Act, be deemed guilty of devastavit, or be chargeable with the debt due from the person or persons so discharged.

XVII. And be it enacted, That when any person has been arrested in this Province either upon mesne process or execution, the Sheriff or other officer in whose custody such person may be, is hereby authorized and empowered to permit such person to go about and have his liberty within the limits designated for such gaol, upon a bond being given to the Sheriff, by the name of his office, by such person, with two sufficient sureties to the satisfaction of the Sheriff, in double the amount of the sum for which such person shall be in custody, upon condition thereunder written that such defendant shall not go or be at large out of such limits, or escape at any time while he has the liberty of the same as aforesaid, any law or custom to the contrary notwithstanding; and the Sheriff shall be entitled to demand and receive for making such bond five shillings, and no more, and such bond shall be in the form following, that is to say:—

XXII. And be it enacted, That any debtor having the liberty of the gaol limits, under the provisions of this Act, may render himself or be rendered by his sureties, or one of them, to close custody in the gaol, in discharge of the limit bond, in like manner as a principal may render himself or be rendered in discharge of his bail in cases of special bail, and upon such render being made, the obligation of the said bond shall thenceforth become void.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for either the Mayor or Recorder of the City of Saint John, to carry into execution in the City and County of Saint John, the several provisions of this Act as fully and completely as any Justice of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, together with any Justice of the Peace being of the quorum for the City and County of Saint John, might or could do by virtue of this Act.
