22 Victoria – Chapter 9

An Act relating to the Boundary Line between the Provinces of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.
Passed 13th April 1859.

Boundary Line defined.

Be it enacted and declared by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly, as follows:—The Line of division between the Provinces of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, as defined by the Commissioners appointed for that purpose, shall be and is hereby declared to be as follows, that is to say: Commencing at the Mouth of Missiquash River in Cumberland Bay, and thence following the several courses of said River to a post near Black Island; thence north fifty four degrees twenty five minutes east, crossing the south end of Black Island, two hundred and eighty eight chains, to the northerly angle of Trenholm Island; thence north thirty seven degrees east eighty five chains and eighty two links, to a post; thence north seventy six degrees east forty six chains and twenty links, to the portage; thence south sixty five degrees forty five minutes east three hundred and ninety four chains and forty links, to Tidnish Bridge; thence following the several courses of said River along its northern upland bank to its Mouth; thence following the northwesterly channel to the deep waters of the Bay Verte, giving to Nova Scotia the control of the navigable waters and Tidnish River; but nothing in this Act shall in any way affect any suits at law pending for or in respect of lands which have heretofore been deemed within the Province of New Brunswick.
