An Act to amend an Act intituled An Act for the establishing and maintaining a Police Force in the Parish of Portland, in the City and County of Saint John. Passed 8th March 1860.

Section.

Preamble.

1. Assessment for Police Station House authorized.

Section.

2. Provoking a breach of peace by insulting language; penalty.

Whereas the Commissioners of the Portland Police, by Act of Assembly 11 Victoria, Chapter 12, Section 42, were authorized to include the sum of two hundred pounds in the first assessment to be made by them for the purposes of the said Police establishment, to meet the expense of erecting and finishing a Lock-up House: And whereas the said building is now absolutely necessary, and doubts are entertained whether the same could be done at any other time than the first assessment after the passing of the said Act;—

Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly, as follows:—

1. The said Commissioners are hereby authorized to assess on the said Parish for a sum not exceeding four hundred pounds for the erecting and finishing a Police Station House, with Lock-up, for the said Parish, that is to say: Two hundred pounds in the year 1860, and two hundred pounds in a subsequent year, should the same be required for that purpose, to be levied and assessed as in the said Act is provided for making other assessments.
2. Any person who shall by insulting or abusive language or behaviour, taunting epithets, or threatening gestures, attempt to provoke another person to commit a breach of the peace in any part of the Parish of Portland, or in any building therein, or whereby a breach of the peace may be committed, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than forty shillings.
