

Acts of the General Assembly of Her Majesty's Province of New-Brunswick passed in the year 1862. Fredericton, NB: John Simpson, Printer to the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, 1862.

25 Victoria – Chapter 40

An Act further to amend an Act to regulate the qualifications of Practitioners in Medicine and Surgery, and to provide a Medical Council of Health in the Province of New Brunswick. Passed 23rd April 1862.

Appointment and election of Members to the Medical Council, in case of death or resignation, how made. All acts done by Medical Council during any vacancy valid, if composed of not less than six members.

Be it enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly, as follows:—In the case of the death or resignation of any of the members appointed by the Governor in Council of the Medical Council, a new appointment to fill such vacancy shall be made by the Governor in Council with all convenient speed; and in the case of the death or resignation of any of the members elected by the Medical Faculty of the Medical Council, the remaining members of the Medical Council shall, with all convenient speed, elect, subject to the approval of the Governor in Council, to fill such vacancy, any duly qualified registered practitioner of medicine, who shall retain his seat in the Medical Council till the next general election of members of the Medical Council; all acts done by the Medical Council during the existence of any vacancy or vacancies shall, so long as the number of members shall not have been reduced to less than six, be equally valid as if no such vacancy or vacancies existed.
