26 Victoria – Chapter 43

An Act to erect a new Parish in the County of Carleton. Passed 20th April, 1863.

Section.

1. Limits of new Parish; name of Parish.
2. New Parish to have same privileges and subject to same Laws as other Parishes.
4. Polling place.

Section.

4. Parish Clerk, by whom appointed; list of rate-payers, by whom furnished.
5. Not to interfere with recovery of rates ordered, or fines, &c., due before the passing of this Act.

Whereas it is expedient for the greater convenience of the inhabitants, that the Settlements known as Glassville, Knowlesville, and Ketchum Settlements, in the County of Carleton, and now constituting portions of the Parishes of Brighton, Peel, and Kent, should be set off and erected into a separate Parish;—

Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly, as follows:—

1. That all that tract of land bounded as follows, that is to say:—Beginning at the northern angle of lot number ten granted to William Woodforde, on the Coldstream, in the Parish of Peel, and County of Carleton, and thence running by the magnet of the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty seven, north seventy two degrees west eight chains, to the eastern line of a reserved road; thence following the several courses of the said road, by the base line of the lots, in a northerly direction, to the northwest angle of the lot letter I, northeast of Brown's Portage Road; thence south seventy two degrees and thirty minutes east, by the magnet of the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty one, fifteen chains, to meet the western line of a reserved road at a post; thence along the said line, being the western line of Glassville, north seventeen degrees and thirty minutes east, to the northern angle of lot number fifty three; thence northerly along an explored road, to the northwest angle of lot number fifty five in Johnsville; thence south eighty seven degrees and fifteen minutes east, along the northern line of the said lot, ninety one chains and fifty links; thence south eighty eight degrees and forty five minutes east, to the northwest angle of lot number eighty in the second survey of Glassville; thence along the northerly line of the said lot, south seventy two degrees and thirty minutes east, fifty eight chains and seventy five links, to the western line of another reserved road; thence directly to the northwest angle of lot number seventy nine; thence along the northern line of the said lot and its eastern prolongation, south seventy two degrees and thirty minutes east, to the northwestern line of the County of York; thence along the said County line in a southwesterly direction, to meet the southeastern prolongation of the northeastern line of the said Grant to William Woodforde; thence along the said prolongation and line to the place of beginning, shall be and the same is hereby erected into a separate and distinct Town or Parish, and shall be called the Town or Parish of 'Aberdeen.'

2. The said Town or Parish of Aberdeen shall have the same privileges, and be subject to the same laws and regulations as extend to or govern the other Parishes of the County.
3. The polling place for the said Parish of Aberdeen shall be at or near Hugh Miller's.
4. The Councillors for the Parish of Peel, in the said County of Carleton, shall and may appoint a fit and proper person, residing within the limits of the said Parish of Aberdeen, as Parish Clerk, at least forty days before the next annual election of Councillors for the County of Carleton; and the Collectors of Taxes for the Parishes of Brighton, Peel, and Kent, shall furnish the said Parish Clerk of the Parish of Aberdeen with correct lists of the rate-payers on properties residing within the said Parish hereby erected, who shall have paid their taxes in the several Parishes to which, before the passing of this Act, they severally belonged, in like manner and at such time as Collectors of Taxes are now required to furnish the Parish Clerks with lists of rate-payers according to law.
5. Nothing in this Act contained shall interfere with or prevent the recovery of any assessment which may have been made or ordered before the passing of this Act, or with any fines, penalties or moneys which may have accrued or become due, or with the discharge of the duties of any officer who may have been appointed; but such assessment may be collected, such fines and penalties may be levied, the payment of such moneys accrued due may be enforced, and the said officers may discharge their respective duties until others shall be appointed in their stead, in like manner as if this Act had not passed; and nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to relieve any part of the Parish hereby erected from existing liabilities.
